SENATE.

THE "LYNDALL-DECHERT" CASE.

Mr. BUCKALEW presented a very voluminous supplemental report from the Democratic side of the Lyndall-Dechert committee, in answer to the Republican minority report. All the reports in the case were ordered printed.

POSTAGE ON THE JOURNAL.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on the Distribution of the Legislative Journal, reported that the United States postoffice here would not receive said paper, unless prepaid at full rates, and the committee therefore recommended that the members of both Houses be allowed to frank the copies they may send to their constituents.

APPROPRIATION FOR STAMPS.

Mr. WHITE said he would never vote for restoring the franking privilege. He introduced a substitute for the Committee's resolution, appropriating one thousand dollars to the Clerk of the Senate and two thousand to the Clerk of the House to purchase stamps for the journal during the present month, legislative postmasters to place them on wrappers, and clerks and postmasters to render a report at the end of the month.

Mr. FARMAN moved a further amendment rescinding the contract for publication of the Legislative Journal. Ruled irrelevant.

After some discussion the subject was postponed for the present.

ANOTHER JUDGE—PASSED OVER VETO.

A bill for an additional Judge in Schuylkill county, on the motion of Mr. RANDALL, was passed, over the veto of the Governor, and then went to the House.

CIVIL CODE.

The Commissioners made their report.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SOLDIERS' ORPHANS.

Mr. BROOKE introduced a bill transferring the duties of the Superintendent of soldiers' orphans to the Superintendent of common schools.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF BEAVER COUNTY.

Mr. RUTAN introduced a bill authorizing the school directors of New Galilee borough, Beaver county, to borrow money, for building purposes.

Mr. DAVIS moved to make his

the special order for Thursday afternoon of next week. Carried.

STATE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Mr. BILLINGFELT introduced a resolution instructing the Constitutional Reform Committee to report a bill for a State Constitutional Convention, an equal number of delegates to be elected in Senatorial or Congressional districts, one half only to be voted for, to give each party equal representation.

Mr. CONNELL opposed. The committee would next week report a satisfactory bill.

Mr. BUCKALEW moved to refer to the committee. Carried.

HOUSE.

EXEMPTED FROM TAXATION.

A local bill for exempting an Odd Fellows' hall in an interior town from taxation came up, and a general debate on the principle involved took place. The bill finally passed—yeas 51; nays 31.

HISTORY OF PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.

Mr. WARNER introduced a bill for one thousand copies of the History of Pennsylvania Volunteers, to be sold at three dollars per volume.

THE POSTAGE ON THE LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL.

Mr. ELLIOTT, from the Printing Committee, reported a resolution for sending the Legislative Journal by mail, the State Treasurer to pay the postage.

Mr. WHITE opposed, and said the postage would amount to from twelve to thirteen thousand dollars a session.

The bill passed, yeas 47, nays 46. Messrs. Humphries and Robb voted aye. Messrs. Kerr, Taylor, Warren and White voted no.

PRINTING JOURNAL WRAPPERS.

Mr. JOHNSON moved the appointment of a Joint Committee to superintend the printing of the Legislative Journal wrappers. He said in 1869, this work cost the State thirteen thousand eight hundred and eighty-six dollars; in 1870, twelve thousand six hundred and eighty-three dollars, which was too much.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

ALLOWED TO WITHDRAW PAPERS.

Mr. SMITH, of Philadelphia, introduced a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Charities to withdraw certain papers presented by President S. Lane, without any authority. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

THE AMERICAN STEAMSHIP BILL

was reported favorably.

THE ROTHERMEL PAINTING—PROPOSITION FROM THE ALLEGHENY PARK COMMISSIONERS.

Mr. WARNER presented the following petition:

Petition from the Park Commissioners of the City of Allegheny, relative to the Rothermel painting of the Battle of Gettysburg:

To the Honorable members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth:

GENTLEMEN—We, the undersigned members of the Park Commission of the city of Allegheny, having learned that the question of the final disposition of Rothermel's celebrated painting of the battle of Gettysburg will be decided during the ensuing session of the Legislature, we take this opportunity of petitioning your honorable body for the honor of being entrusted with its safe keeping. We do not lay claim to represent the largest Park in the Commonwealth, but one containing at least one hundred acres, and situated in the heart of a city ranking third only in population and wealth in our great State, and claiming the proud honor of sending more than her proportion of soldiers to the battle field, many of whom sleep their last sleep on the memorable field of Gettysburg.

For your information, and as it may not be generally known, we will state one of the finest, if not altogether the finest and costliest monument in the State, is now under contract and in process of erection upon our park, in honor of the fallen soldiers of Allegheny county.

Several hundred thousand dollars have already been expended in the construction of the park, and before the work of ornamentation and construction is finished a very considerable additional amount will be expended. When finished, we congratulate ourselves, and the flourishing city we have the honor to represent, that our park will be the completest work of the kind in the commonwealth. It is, therefore, we think, with some show of reason, that we ask of your honorable body to consider our claim in this matter in a favorable light. The West certainly deserves some recognition from the State in matters pertaining to the history of our commonwealth.

Bearing a share of the public expenses, the claim in this case is well founded, besides it is not asked for as a gratuity. Postage no finer site could be selected, or liberal offer made, than is herewith submitted by your petitioners.

As an evidence of our earnestness and sincerity in the matter set forth in our petition, we hereby authorize the Honorable members of your body from our District to make the following proposition, and hereby affix our several signatures thereto, officially binding our Commission to the proposition. We submit as follows:

We the undersigned, members of the Allegheny City Park Commission, at a meeting held Saturday, January 28, 1871, hereby agree, and pledge the Commission to the fulfillment of the following proposition, viz:

That for, and in consideration of the Legislature agreeing to give into our trust entire, or in joint trust of a committee of your honorable body, the permanent custody of Rothermel's celebrated painting of the "Battle of Gettysburg," we hereby stipulate to erect a fire-proof and otherwise suitable building for its reception, keep it on permanent free exhibition, and in every way provide for its care and preservation.

[Signed.] Jas. Park, Jr., President. Robt. Lea, J. C. Patterson, A. P. Callow, Mayor, A. M. Marshall, A. McNeil, Alfred Slack. Attest: J. B. Oxley, Secretary.

THE PHILADELPHIA JUDICIAL CONTEST.

The Legislative Committee on the Philadelphia judicial contested election, this morning resolved to report in favor of the sitting judge. The committee held three meetings, but the contestant did not appear.

JUDGE APPOINTED.

The Governor to-day appointed W. M. Hall to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge King, in the Bedford and Somerset judicial district.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, January 31, 1871.

THE FEE BILL.

As you will learn by telegraph before this reaches you, Mr. White has objected his fee bill for the purpose of making several important amendments: Indeed, I am informed that he intends re-writing it entirely. He finds it to be a much more difficult task than he anticipated. It is no easy matter to prepare a bill of the sort, and make it altogether unobjectionable, even to the author. It is to be hoped that Mr. White will succeed in framing such a bill as will be acceptable to all.

SPECIAL LEGISLATION.

Almost everybody is crying out continually against special legislation, but it seems that everybody is not so seriously opposed when he or his friend is specially interested.

A NEW OFFICIAL PAPER.

The bill of Mr. Kerr, creating the Legal Journal (which is, of course, the periodical intended) an official paper to publish sheriff's sales or an abstract thereof, is one of the most flagrant pieces of special legislation that has been offered for some time. The honorable gentleman seems to be convinced of this himself, for I understand he has had the further consideration of it postponed for some time, although another member has seen fit to call it up to-day. It is certainly and reform to compel those who have become unfortunate, and fall into the Sheriff's hands, to pay for the advertising of their property in a journal which is never seen outside a lawyer's office. This is a burden to which the people of your county will not submit, and they should not. It is evident that this bill has got very unpopular in Pittsburgh, from the fact that those personally interested in the passage of it have been here for a day or two using their best efforts to put it through. It is to be hoped that such a bill will not be enacted into a law, in the face of the efforts now being made by Mr. White to reduce taxation. Shall the unfortunate of Allegheny county be compelled to pay for advertising their property in a periodical which no one outside the legal fraternity ever sees?

PASSAGE OF THE BILL DOUBTFUL.

I think the bill cannot pass. But as I have seen no notice of it in any of the papers in Pittsburgh, and as great efforts are being put forth to secure its passage, I deem it my duty to call attention to it, so that costs may not be doubled, when the people are under the apprehension that they are being reduced.

PUBLIC PRINTING.

Our Solons here seem to be at sea in regard to the public printing. Evidently there are not many practical printers in the Legislature. They may however be able to make a favorable impression. The joint Convention adjourned to-day without doing anything in the matter.

VISITORS.

The following visitors are here from your county: J. W. Murray, John Megraw, Samuel Hastings, Breading Dalzell, Charles Jeremy and Wm. H. McGee. LEX.

(THIRD SESSION.)

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, February 1, 1871.

SENATE.

REMONSTRANCE AGAINST FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

Mr. BUCKINGHAM presented a remonstrance from the women of New England against female suffrage, protesting against the imposition upon them of burdens belonging to the sterner sex.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Mr. POMEROY, in place of his resolution of yesterday, offered a resolution expressive of sympathy with the sufferers of both the European nations now at war, and recommending a system of organized charity.

Mr. SHERMAN moved as an amendment an additional resolution to communicate to the French government the profound sympathy of the American people, and to extend them every encouragement consistent with our laws and treaties, to form a republican government.

The amendment called forth considerable debate. It was finally withdrawn by Mr. Sherman, and introduced as a separate resolution, when it was referred.

On motion of Mr. SAULSBURY, the preamble of Mr. Pomeroy's resolution was stricken out, and the resolution so amended as to make it a concurrent one, and thus require the action of the House.

BRIDGE OVER THE MISSOURI RIVER.

Mr. THAYER introduced a bill authorizing the Union Pacific railroad to issue bonds to complete the bridge across the Missouri river at Omaha. Tabled and ordered to be printed.

The case of the contested Georgia seat was taken up, and the resolution admitting Joshua Hill as Senator was passed.

Nothing else of importance took place. The Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned.

In the Senate, Mr. Buckingham presented a remonstrance from the women of New England against female suffrage.

A NEW TERRITORY.

Mr. NYE, from the Committee on Territories, submitted a written report, with a substitute for the bill organizing the territory of Oklahoma.

NEW PARLIAMENTARY FORMS.

TAX SALES.

Mr. COOK, from the same Committee reported a bill for the relief of purchasers of land sold for direct taxes in insurrectionary States. Passed. Also, a bill providing that where a railroad company is operating in a State, and has offices there, it shall be deemed a citizen of the State in so far as that it shall not be permitted to remove causes brought against it by citizens of that State, from the State Courts to the U. S. Courts.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE MEMORIAL.

Mr LOUGHRIDGE presented a minority report on the memorial of Victoria C. Woodhull for woman suffrage

Mr. BINGHAM asked to have the subject made the special order for the second Wednesday in February.

Mr. KELSEY of New York, objected

THE TEST OATH.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Senate bill passed on the 22d of April last, prescribing the oath of office to be taken by persons who participated in the late rebellion, but who are not disqualified from holding office by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL.

The bill provides that such persons shall take the oath prescribed in the act of the 11th of July, 1868; prescribes the oath of office to be taken by persons from whom legal disabilities shall have been removed.

THE BILL DISCUSSED.

The bill was advocated by Messrs. UPSON and BINGHAM. Mr. PLATT said he would have preferred the entire repeal of the ironclad oath, but this bill in effect accomplished the same object, and he should vote for it, and hoped every member who desired to see peace restored to the South, and to see the Republican party triumphant, would vote for it.

MAIDEN SPEECH OF A COLORED REPRESENTATIVE.

Mr. LONG a colored representative from Georgia, made his maiden speech in the House, in opposition to the bill, claiming that the men whom it would relieve were leaders of the Ku Klux. He declared that since the rebellion closed; more than five hundred loyal men had been killed in Georgia, and not one of the murderers had been brought to justice. He believed therefore he was doing his duty to his constituents and country in voting against the bill.

Mr. MORGAN said he should vote for the bill, but would much rather vote for the total abolition of the test oath, and the removal of all political disabilities. It was not by the maintenance of such measures that outrages in the South would be prevented but by the presence of an armed force.

Mr. MAYNARD argued against the bill, and presented a communication which he had received yesterday, addressed to Mr. Butler. The communication represented the Union people in Tennessee, as being in a helpless condition, under the control of enemies of the Government, and invoked the protection of Government. He condemned the miserable namby-pamby sentimentalism which is doing more to sap the foundations of Government and overthrow it, than Lee and all his hosts.

Mr. DAWES inquired whether the severe treatment meted out to rebels had not had the effect contrary to that intended.

Mr. MAYNARD replied in the negative.

Mr. GARFIELD said he was unwilling that the vote he should give for the bill should be construed as a vote in favor of the Ku-Klux in any State. He asked Mr. Maynard whether the retention of the ironclad oath in the case for which this bill did not provide, would have the effect of suppressing outrages in any of the Southern States.

Mr. SHANKS opposed and argued against the bill, declaring his unwillingness to release any particle of the power congress held over the rebels of the south till showed by their conduct they were worthy of it.

Mr. PORTER opposed the bill, and denied that the Republican party of Virginia was in favor of universal amnesty; on the contrary, he asserted that ninety-nine out of every hundred of the Republican party in Virginia were against it, until they secured their own rights. At the conclusion of Mr. PORTER'S speech, Mr. RANDALL, moved that he be allowed to continue his remarks.

Mr. COX objected, saying when he wanted to reply to a personal attack the other day, in the matter of San Domingo, the member from Richmond, was the only man in the House mean enough to object. Mr. Porter retorted that the member from the sixth district of New York was the only member of the House mean enough to make that remark.

Mr. COX added, in the midst of much confusion and calls to order, that that man (meaning Mr. Porter) was not the man to attack him. He had no belligerency with that member who was not a fighting man. (Laughter.)

Mr. PORTER—You had better try it: that's all.

Mr. VAN WYCK opposed the bill, and reminded Mr. Platte how that last year at a Republican meeting at Petersburg, at which he (Van Wyck) was present, rebels cheered for Lee and Davis.

Mr. PLATT admitted that, but said the loyal element had cleared the rebel crowd in about two minutes.

Mr. VAN WYCK remarked that if the colored men in Petersburg had not had more courage than some of their Representatives in the House, the rebels would not have been cleared out. [Laughter.]

Mr. PLATT, in the midst of much noise and confusion, the Speaker's gavel hammering the desk rapidly, attempted to make himself heard in reply, but his voice was drowned. He was understood to say, however, that he had proved his courage on the battlefield, which was more than the member from N. Y. (Van Wyck) did.

Mr. ARNELL argued against the bill.

Mr. BECK said nobody need be surprised at a scolding by the gentleman from Tennessee (Maynard) as that gentleman has been scolding all his life.

Mr. FARNSWORTH argued in favor of the bill, and said that when the two gentlemen from Tennessee (Messrs. Maynard and Arnell) were declaiming against it, he almost fancied that it was the ghost of Hamlet's father, crying, "swear, swear, swear," (Laughter) as if the test oath was the great panacea for the woes that the South were suffering under. The intelligent white people of the country could not be dammed up by such means; sooner or later they would break down the dam. If the Government of Tennessee had passed liberal laws, and allowed the disfranchised to come back and vote and hold office, we would not have any of the trouble in that State which we now have. The trouble in Tennessee had been caused by disfranchisement.

Mr. ARNELL, "I deny it."

Mr. FARNSWORTH, "It was so to a great extent in Missouri. There were disfranchisement and disqualification there, and you see the result, you see the revolution. There will be a revolution in every State where you attempt this thing."

Mr. BUTLER, of Mass., closed the debate. He said he had reported the bill as the mouthpiece of the Committee on Reconstruction, but could not support it. Every giving way that Congress had so far allowed, had been a death knell of some black or white friend of the Union. That was the difficulty he found in the way of this bill. He hoped the ironclad oath would never be repealed. It was a patent of nobility for loyalty. Referring to the Ku-Klux outrages—[Mr. Jones, of Ky., interrupted and asked Mr. Butler in an angry tone of voice—"What do you mean, sir, by Ku-Klux? answer me that."] Mr. Butler, without noticing the question, went on to say that Congress was relaxing and giving way to rebels all the time.

Mr. JONES, (Ky.)—"When did you ever give way, sir? I mean in the right direction."

Mr. BUTLER—"We gave way when we admitted that gentleman to his seat." [Laughter.]

Mr. JONES—"No sir, but we gave way when we admitted you to your seat—a rebel to the Constitution and the Union."

[Speaker, using gavel]—"The gentleman from Kentucky is out of order."

MESSRS. BUTLER AND JONES both attempted to make themselves heard, and the Speaker decided both of them out of order. The debate being closed

Mr. ARNOLD moved to lay the bill on the table—negatived. The bill then passed. The following is the text of the bill.

Be it enacted, &c., when any person who is not rendered ineligible to office by the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution shall be elected or appointed to any office of honor or trust under the Government of the United States, and shall not be able to account for his participation in the rebellion, and take the oath prescribed in the Act of Congress approved 2d July, 1862, said person shall, in lieu of said oath, before entering on the duties of said office, take and subscribe the oath prescribed in said Act of Congress, entitled "An act prescribing the oath of office to be taken by persons from whom political disabilities shall have been removed," Approved 11th July, 1868.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Mr. BINGHAM of the Judiciary Committee reported a bill for the appointment of an additional Assistant Attorney General. Passed.

ADDITIONAL POWERS FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Mr. BUTLER of Massachusetts, from the same Committee, reported a bill relating to the jurisdiction of Courts in certain causes, authorizing the Attorney General to institute proceedings in the usual forms of law and equity, and determine all questions wherein the rights and interests of the United States were concerned. Passed—also a bill to remedy certain of certain customs revenue laws; directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay judgments recovered against collectors of customs for money paid in excess of duties or fees on imported merchandise. Passed.

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS IN OHIO.

Mr. KELLOGG, Conn., from the same committee, reported a bill to divide the State of Ohio into three judicial districts. Passed.

MISCELLANEOUS BILLS.

Mr. PETERS made a report on the memorial of Wm. McGarrahan that he is not entitled to the relief asked.

Mr. BINGHAM presented a minority report on the same subject.

Mr. PETERS, from the same committee, reported a bill giving the criers of United States courts the same compensation for travel and attendance as jurors. Passed.

Also to allow the discharge of convicts sentenced to imprisonment and fine, when the term of imprisonment has expired, on their making oath before the United States commissioner that they have no means of satisfying the fine. Passed.

Mr. MERCER, of the same Committee, reported a bill to amend the bankruptcy act. Passed.

Mr. KELLOGG of Conn., from the same Committee, reported a bill to divide the State of Vermont into two Judicial Districts. Passed.

Mr. LOUGHRIDGE reported a bill to allow claimants an appeal from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court, in all cases where the consent of the Court of Claims was given for such appeal. Passed. Also a bill relinquishing to the State of Michigan the title of the U. S. to Fort Gratiot, Milwaukee reservation. Passed.

Mr. ELDRIDGE reported back the Senate bill relating to the record of United States events. Passed with amendment.

Mr. BUTLER, of Mass., of the same Committee, reported a bill allowing parties in certain cases to testify; making the laws of each State to govern as to the competency of witnesses in all criminal trials in the United States courts in such State. Passed.

Mr. BINGHAM, of the same Committee, reported a bill to amend the act of May 31, 1870—to enforce the rights of the citizens of the United States to vote in several States. The bill went over till to-morrow.

The Speaker appointed Messrs. Logan, Scofield and Butler, of Mass., a committee of conference on the bill to abolish the offices of Admiral and Vice Admiral.

The House, at 4:30 P. M. adjourned.

ASHLAND, PA.

The Coal Miners' Strike—The Philadelphia Meeting of Coal Operators—Coal Business Dull.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ASHLAND, January 31.—There is nothing known here concerning the object of the meeting of the coal operators of the Schuylkill region, which is to be held in Philadelphia next Thursday. It is generally supposed that it is for the purpose of making amicable arrangements with the miners.

Nothing has been heard of the action of the General Council of the Workingmen's Benevolent Association, which has been in session at Pittston.

Orders for coal still continue meagre.

The newspapers throughout the region, with one exception, are berating the leaders of the Workingmen's Benevolent Association, attributing the stoppage and consequent misery entirely to that combination.

LATER.

It is understood that the operations in the Schuylkill county region will be resumed between the fifteenth and twentieth of February. Several shippers have already issued instructions to their agents at Philadelphia and New York to receive orders for coal.

PHILADELPHIA.

A Murderer Sentenced—Another one Executed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, February 1.—The jury, in the case of John Ware, on trial for killing his father at Camden, returned a verdict last night of murder in the first degree. The prisoner exhibited no emotion on hearing the verdict.

The execution of John Hanlon took place this morning. The law limiting the number of witnesses was strictly enforced by the Sheriff.

After religious ceremonies, Father Barry said Hanlon had nothing to be made public, but wished to return thanks to the officers of the prison and the inspector and keepers. Hanlon then stepped to the front of the platform, and in a firm and distinct voice said, "To those who have ever injured me or have ever done me any wrong, I forgive them and ask God to forgive them, and all whom I have injured in any way whatever or against whom I have had any ill feelings, I ask their forgiveness, and may God forgive me." His body has been given to his friends for interment.

Not a Port of Entry—Refused a Clearance.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, January 31.—Mexican Consul Rivas notifies the public that the Magdalena Bay, Lower California is not a port of entry. Any goods landed there are liable to confiscation.

The brig Curlew, chartered by a Lower California Company, being refused clearance for Magdalena sailed without her papers. It is not likely any more emigrants can be obtained here.

THE WAR.

THE FUTURE—GAMBETTA FIRM.

LONDON, February 1.—A dispatch from Bordeaux says that Gambetta has telegraphed to the Prefects that he will announce the resolution of the Bordeaux government after communication with the envoy who is to come from Paris. Meanwhile, he asks them to be firm and confident, and instructs them to drill incessantly the recruits who come in during the term of the respite allowed by the armistice.

THE ARMISTICE IN OPERATION.

VERSAILLES, January 31.—The armistice prevailed in the west and north west of France without difficulty, and is reported in the east also, and military operations in that quarter cease to-day.

BOMBARDMENT OF BELFORT.

Dispatches from Pruntout, Switzerland, report that the bombardment still continues.

ENOUGH GERMANS IN THE FIELD.

A Berlin dispatch says orders have been given for the discontinuance of the dispatch of troops to France.

DISTURBANCES FEARED IN PARIS.

A Versailles dispatch mentions the report that firing was heard in Belleville and the Villette Quarters of Paris, and says it is feared that disturbances have occurred.

BORDEAUX WANTS NO DISHONORABLE PEACE.

Bordeaux has made a protest to the government against peace on any dishonorable terms, and imploring the delegation to remain at their post.

GERMAN AID TO STARVING PARIS.

LONDON, February 1.—The Times to-day says that upon the representation of M. Favre, that Paris was already suffering greatly from the want of food, the emperor ordered that three million rations be sent from the German army to the famishing city.

THE EMPEROR WILLIAM GOING HOME.

The Daily News asserts positively that the Emperor is expected in Berlin.

RESTRICTIONS UPON TRAVEL.

Wednesday all trains converging upon Paris are forbidden to carry mere travellers, who are excluded from the city unless they are provided with special passes from the German authorities, while persons are allowed to leave Paris. The French authorities have requested the Prussians to prevent all admission to the city.

THE ORLEANISTS ON THE ALERT.

BRUSSELS, February 1.—Gen. Fleury passed through Cologne on his way to London. The Orleans Princes have resolved to accept candidatures for the National Assembly, in the belief that if chosen they can return to France and be no longer prohibited from a residence upon its soil. The Duke D'Aumal will become a candidate for Beauvaire, Angleime, Clermont and Ferrard, and Prince De Joinville for Cherbourg, Chaumont and Brest.

BOURBAKI'S MOVEMENTS—SICK TROOPS.

Bourbaki's army has not entered Switzerland. The French commandant, at Monterien, however, asked the Swiss authorities to be allowed to transport sick French soldiers through Swiss territory, and the request was granted.

RECONSTRUCTION—CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.

BORDEAUX, February 1.—It is believed that the first act of the National Assembly when it convenes at Bordeaux, will be the nomination of a president and council of ministers, forming the government. Messrs. Favre, Gambetta, Thiers, Picard and Grevy are the probable candidates for the office, and Favre, Gambetta and Thiers are considered as having the greatest chances.

GAMBETTA IMPATIENT—HE SAYS THE PEOPLE ARE TOO.

M. Gambetta, in a dispatch sent yesterday in reply to M. Favre's telegram of the 28th, says: "The country is feverishly anxious, and can't rest contented with the information given in your dispatch. The Government of Bordeaux has ordered the immediate execution of the armistice but can't order an election for the National Assembly, without further explanations, or without knowing the fate of the Paris municipality."

EFFORTS TO REVICTUAL PARIS.

The Prussians are making colossal efforts to supply the city with breadstuffs, of which there are now on hand sufficient to last till Saturday. The supplies of horse meat will hold out until the 10th of February. Great quantities of food have been shipped from Belgium to Paris.

THE EMPEROR'S MOVEMENTS UNCERTAIN.

BERLIN, February 1.—The telegraphic report that Emperor William is about to return to this city is unfounded. It is unlikely that he will come here before the conclusion of a definitive treaty of peace.

UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN BISMARCK AND FAVRE.

BERLIN, Febuary, 1.—Spencer's Zeitung, a semi-official journal, declares its belief that an understanding has been established between Bismarck and Favre as to the basis on which negotiations for peace shall proceed.

A MATTER OF OPINION.

[Special to New York World.]

LONDON, January 31.—It is believed in court circles here that the empire will be restored, with the Empress as regent. The Emperor's confidential aid arrived at Chiselhurst today.

THE TERMS PRESCRIBED.

LONDON, February 1.—A special telegram to the London Times from Berlin says the conditions of peace prescribed by Bismarck to Favre embrace the session of Alsace and Lorraine with Belfort and Metz, the payment of ten milliards of francs, as an indemnity for expenses of the war, the cession of the colony of Pondicherry and transfer to the German navy twenty first-rate frigates. Favre refuses these terms till the National Assembly meets at Bordeaux.

AUSTRIAN HUNGARY.

INCREASE OF ARMAMENT.

PESTH, January 31.—In the Austrio-Hungarian Delegation to-day, Baron Von Beust delivered a speech advocating an increase to the amendments of the Empire, both military and naval. He definitely repudiated the idea that the government was actuated by any policy of revenge for the past, but said the danger of warlike complications involving Austria, was not a phantom peril. The policy of the Empire was peaceful and prudent, but contingencies were possible, and foreign powers must learn that Austria is ready for defence.

GERMAN VIOLATION OF SWISS TERRITORY.

LONDON, February 1.—It is reported that the government of Switzerland has sent a remonstrance to Berlin against the violation of Swiss territory by German soldiers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, February 1.—The Ecclesiastical Court for the trial of Rev. Charles E. Cheney, Rector of Christ Church, met this morning at the Bishop's chapel. The Assessors and Presentors were all present except Rev. Dr. Pierce, who has been chosen Bishop of Arkansas since the last meeting.

On the previous trial the case was removed to the Supreme Court, and an injunction issued, staying proceedings till the decision of that court. This has been recently rendered, confirming the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical court. The trial is now proceeding.

The Alabama Claims—Public Debt Statement—New Test Oath Bill Passes Both Houses—San Domingo.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1871.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

It now appears likely that the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations will devote considerable time to the subject of the Alabama claims, as the details will probably cover the whole question of the damages done by the rebel cruisers fitted-out in the British ports.

The New York Times Washington correspondent telegraphs that the statement as industriously reiterated by a correspondent of an evening cotemporary, that the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has lately been considering highly important overtures from Great Britain for the settlement of the Alabama claims is unqualifiedly false. There is nothing new about the Alabama claims beyond this, that the Government recently received additional evidence of the anxiety of Great Britain to settle these claims, and that General Schenck's departure has been delayed until new and fresh instructions can be made out. He had engaged passage in the Russia, which sails to-day, but will remain a few days longer.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate: Postmasters—Jno. C. Hanman, Delphi, Ind.; J. G. Hatchell, Frankfort, Ky.; Geo. W. Baker, Rochester, Minn.; Wm. S. Brown, Napa City, Cal.; Chas R. The following is the total of bonds issued to Pacific Railroad: Principal outstanding, $64,618,832; interest accrued not yet paid, $323,094; interest paid by United States, $10,753,910; interest repaid by transportation of mails, $2,460,818; balance of interest paid by the United States, $18,293,096.

SAN DOMINGO NEWS.

The special correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says that Senator Sumner received from a friend a letter written by Cabral, President Baez's opponent at San Domingo, bearing date December 21st, 1870, in which he says he is preparing to move on and capture the principal strongholds of Baez, and he fully expects to be succesful. Cabral's strength is greatly underestimated by his enemies. He has more troops than those opposed to him are willing to admit, and has no intention of abandoning the struggle, as reported.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for February, has a story, presented as original, by Edward C. Cooper, which appeared in Old and New for January. Probably both were from the same French original, and it is a sharp lesson to editors to be more careful.

OF the proposed Chicago amendment to the Constitution the Congregationalist says: "No Christianity in the Constitution because the words are not there! Is there no salt in the sea? There are no lumps of salt visible. Go to, now; let us form a national society to put salt into the Atlantic ocean.

A DISCOVERY has been made among Lord Palmerston's papers, consisting of his manuscript diary of two visits to Paris in 1814 and 1815. As the diary was found only after the publication of the "Life," by Sir H. Bulwer, the Hon. Cowper Temple will give it to the public through the Temple Bar Magazine.

THE working classes in England, seeing the fallacy of freetrade are beginning to clamor for protection. Is it wonderful then that the great manufacturers there finding that the days of starvation wages are numbered, are now laboring hard to shift the burden of free trade upon American shoulders in order to find a larger market for their goods?

THE Albany Journal says that the late Mr. Delavan had letters from every crowned head in Europe on the subject of temperance: and the publication of his correspondence with the eminent men who have occupied prominent positions in literary, political and scientific world during the past thirty-five years would constitute a volume of great interest and value.

CLARA PERL seems to have made a decided success in Philadelphia. After having heard her in Nicolai's "Merry Wives," the critic of the Bulletin says that "she is much the best contralto singer that we have had for years, her voice being full, rich and of even quality, and her method easy and elegant. She acted, too, with grace and intelligence." Carl Formes was the Falstaff on this occasion.

THE first volume of the "Nuska-i Dilkush," or "Heart-expanding Pattern," or "copy-book," a posthumous work by Babu Janamejaya Mitra, has just been published in Calcutta by his son, Babu Rajendra lal Mitra. It is a selection from the works of different Hindoo poets, with short notices of their lives. The series is in alphabetical order, and is to contain notices of 677 Hindoo poets and twenty-three poetesses. The first volume contains 380 names.

A CATALOGUE of Works on the Occult Sciences has been printed at Moscow. The works catalogued comprise a portion of the valuable library of Count Alexis Uvaroy, containing altogether about 70,000 volumes. This library is particularly rich in rare works on the occult sciences, and the Count's librarian, M. A. Ladrague, has thought fit to begin a catalogue of the whole library with this portion of it. It is entitled "Sciences Secretes," and contains 1,883 articles.

THE book now looked for with the greatest interest is the collection of Mr. Buckle's "Miscellaneous and Posthumous Works." It is said the first volume will comprise papers published during the lifetime of the author, and that the other two will be edited from his common place books and manuscripts, containing a portion of the materials amassed for the prosecution of his great unfinished "History of Civilization." A biographical notice is contributed by Miss Helen Taylor.

THE "Autobiography of Henry Lord Brougham" will be published in detached volumes. It was originally intended by the family of the deceased statesman to make this autobiography the foundation of a more voluminous work on his Life and Times, and some legal transactions grew out of the question of its editorship. It is now, however, wisely determined to let Brougham speak for himself, and as the autobiography will form three volumes-octavo, it will no doubt be large enough to satisfy the curiosity of the public.

OF the artists whose pictures now form some of the chief attractions at the art exhibition now in progress in this city, Wm. Bradford has just completed a new Arctic view entitled "The Panther among the icebergs," in which the ship is represented ploughing ahead through floes of ice in pursuit of polar bears under the rays of the midnight sun. F. H. De Haas has almost finished a fine marine view of a sunset after a storm. A. D. Shattuck has about finished a group of beautiful pastoral landscapes, and Albert Bierstadt is at work on a large view of "Morning on the Columbia River," which is said to bid fair to be his master-piece of atmospheric effect.

ROTHERMEL, the great artist, whose magnificent painting, "The Battle of Gettysburg," is just now exciting the admiration of thousands of people who visit Philadelphia was a Mauch Chunk boy, the son of the proprietor of the Landing Tavern. He lived in Mauch Chunk until he was seventeen years old, when his parents removed to a village near Philadelphia. Young Peter, very early in life began to show signs of his genius, and bothered his parents very much by continually making figures of animals, men, etc., in every place imaginable, with white chalk. He was apprenticed to a sign painter early in life, but he soon gave evidence that he was destined to a higher calling than painting letters. By hard study and diligent attention to his profession the humble country boy has become one of the first artists of his day.

AMERICAN scuptors are fast attaining to high distinction. A large proportion of them achieve European reputation. From Florence the home of Powers, and a favorite haunt of many artists, comes word of a new and beautiful work of by T. B. Gould, a young sculptor sent out to execute a statue of the late Governor Andrews, of the State of Massachusetts. The main purpose of his visit will probably be eclipsed, so far as reputation goes by the fame of this work of fancy, which the Florence journals and the correspondence of several English papers praise without stint. It is called "The West Wind" and represents a vigorous and graceful young female, erect, listening, just ready for flight, with hair and drapery floating in the air, the whole effect of attitude, face and figure, being free and strong, yet most delicate. The conception of the work is lauded for originality and the treatment for great skill and ingunity. The statue is stated to have been bought by an American gentleman for his own house.

Chloral Eaters.

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes:

This new narcotic, or anæsthetic, of which you have frequently made mention of late, bids fair not to be as harmless as was at first supposed.

Dr. Reilly, in the Health Life, seems to be aware of this fact, and mentions that it aggravated rheumatism, some skin diseases, and causes irritation of the nasal and laryngial mucous surfaces.

Reports of its dangerous effects are becoming quite common in the medical journals, notwithstanding some physicians are so enthusiastic as to declare it to be harmless, in the enormous doses of forty and sixty grains.

I have of late observed that its use is quite common among men and women of nervous temperament, for the relief of pain and sleeplessness. But there is a danger in its indiscriminate use, and of this danger the public ought to be warned.

As we have opium-eaters, hashish-eaters, etc., we have now chloral-eaters. No less than a dozen came under my own observation. One prominent clergyman of this city related his "experience" to me, and, as it coincides with that of others, it is given as an example:

For a few nights—it was taken for sleeplessness—its effects were very pleasant; then came on a peculiar dimness, or weakness of sight; he had to read with one eye at a time—for a minute or two with each. If one eye was used longer than a minute, the words and letters became blurred and indistinct. The eyes became congested, the lids swollen and partially paralyzed. The tongue had a peculiar appearance, a black streak, like that caused by ink, extended the whole length of the tongue, in its centre. This symptom is diognostic of chloral-eating. And I have always observed it in those who have taken the drug any length of time or a few days or weeks.

It is not easy to break off this habit, for a discontinuance of its habitual use causes symptoms resembling delirium tremens. The same results follow the habitual use of the bromide of potassa, and, singularly enough, the bromide of potass in small doses is the best antidote of chloral, although gelseminum is in some cases equally valuable. A case is reported of a man who took two drachms (120 grains) in the evening. He slept twenty-four hours, and on awaking found his arms and legs paralyzed. Yet a gentleman informed me that, after taking chloral in fifteen grain doses every night for a week, a numbness of the arms, with which he had been troubled for years disappeared, and has not returned. C. M. H.

The Love of Life

Is a principal implanted by the Great Creator in the human mind. If we were faithful in every department, and heeded with proper attention, the first outbreak of disease, thousands of lives could be prolonged and many an ill could be alleviated. It is so with the consumptive. It is not in the forming stage of this malady that hope fails him: it is when he has allowed it to fasten upon his vitals, and attack the very citadel of life—the lungs. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE will always cure a cough, from whatever cause, in its earliest stages; it has cured long standing coughs and has eliminated tubercular matter from the lungs and left them well, with their full functions restored. In the matter of chronic diseases, to which Dr. Keyser gives special attention, none have received a greater investigation than Pulmonary Consumption. That it is cared by his plan of treatment, numerous living witnesses bear willing testimonials in every street of our city. If life and health are matters of importance, DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE will be found in every house as a remedy to have at hand when coughing or pulmonary difficulties are prevalent. Office 167 Liberty street; from 9 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 to 6; and on Saturdays, from 7 to 9 at night. If your druggist does not keep it, send five dollars to Dr. Keyser, and he will send four bottles securely boxed, by express, with full directions how to use it.

$5,000 TO LOAN ON FIRST Mortgage Bond. Address "M," GAZETTE OFFICE. ja8

COMPLETION
OF THE
Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.
THE FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
Coupon or Registered
(FREE OF U. S. TAX.)
Principal and Interest Payable in Gold, on a finished road. For sale at 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.
The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated routes between the same points.
By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.
The B., C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile. The balance having been supplied by liberal subscriptions to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.
The earnings of the Road to its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bondholders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bondholders will, by the conversion, be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.
A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue, yet unsold, are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of their bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.
All marketable Securities taken in payment free of Commission and Express charges.

BONDS at Frankfort 95¼.

GOLD closed in New York on yesterday at 111@111¼.

THE Huntsville Republican, (Texas) takes strong ground against general amnesty, and urges that such a measure is full of danger.

THE London Economist made the calculation of the value of the property endangered by the bombardment of Paris, and set it down at $1,443,500,000.

WHILE GEORGIA is urging a law to prevent the carrying of concealed weapons, Tennessee is urging the repeal of the one at present in force in that State.

THE Legislature of Wisconsin has concluded that the law granting a bounty for the killing of wolves, &c., does not pay. It thinks that about one half of what the State has already paid for, was killed in adjoining States.

MR. LINTON STEPHENS is in a fair way of becoming a martyr. His preliminary hearing has resulted in his being bound over in the sum of $5,000 to answer for obstructing the Enforcement laws. We have no doubt he will employ Toombs to defend him.

RUSSIA demands the neutralization of the Black Sea, and Turkey demands exclusive jurisdiction over the Dardanelles and Bosphorus. The Conference will have some difficulty in granting both of these, and we presume will settle the matter in very short order, by declining to interfere for Turkey. Otherwise England will get into trouble.

KENTUCKY is about tired out with Ku-Klux operations. Senator Chenoweth has introduced resolutions in the State Legislature, denouncing, in unqualified terms, those miscreants, and calling for five hundred thousand dollars, for the employment of an efficient police. Chenoweth was a "fighting rebel," and the Louisville Courier Journal says, he is backed in this effort "by the entire Confederate element of this State." And yet Northern Democratic journals don't believe it.

KENTUCKY has a wonderful man. His farm was assessed at $20 per acre, and he positively refused to stand the indignity, asserting that it was worth fully $200 per acre. Reason had not the slightest effect upon him, but a compromise was finally made and the farm assessed at $40 per acre. He had no idea of allowing his farm to be valued that low. If that man can be coaxed up into the western part of Pennsylvania he might be of some advantage to the general tax payers of this community.

THE New York World will now have an opportunity to gratify its longing to see a live Ku Klux. They have found one in Shelby, Kentucky. No positive description is given of him except that his name is Jacob Lighter. Here is an excellent opportunity for the World. A few days ago it earnestly desired that the Southern Investigating Committee would find it a real live Ku Klux, and here he is ready to hand. What is more to the purpose the fellow has confessed, and it is whispered has involved several others, so that it may be possible quite a crowd of these Ku Kluxes can be seen. We have no doubt however that the World will dispute the fact, and accuse the fellow of not having told the truth, and that he is no Ku Klux at all.

THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL of Governor Holden began on Monday last. Chief Justice Pearson presides. A little delay has been caused by an amendment made in the eighth article of impeachment, which required the response also to be amended. Time was granted to amend the response until to-day at 12 M, when the trial will proceed. Governor Holden is in the clutches of bad men, and we do not believe he will be given either a fair or impartial trial. Their object is revenge, and the deep anger of their hearts is prepared to override all law to attain that one object. Under such circumstances we may look for any amount of false swearing, as we know there are men anxious for his impeachment fully willing to swear to whatever may be required.

THE Democracy of New Hampshire is in great trouble. Having elected a State Committee, it was very desirous of putting a head on it. Here, however, the great trouble arose. It was all well enough as a matter of form to have a State Committee. It was one of the necessities of a party, no matter how small that party might be. But, being the head of that Committee was a very different affair. The head would become responsible and no one was willing to take the post. Two different efforts were made but the elected refused. The third election was a success. The elected chairman looked on the matter Philosophically, and accepted the honor of leading the party for form sake. There is not much incentive to be chairman of the Democratic State Committe of New Hampshire.

THE NEW YORK LEGISLATURE is very busy over a bill to prevent accidents from fatal prescriptions. The bill however is objected to because it has reference only to druggists' clerks, and does not include the principals. It is all well enough that it should be required that a clerk in a drug store should pass an examination and be fully qualified, but the mistakes and errors are after all mainly to be attributed to gross carelessness, and not affected by the qualifications of the clerk at all. There are very few errors made, in the compounding of prescriptions, that arise through ignorance on the part of the clerk. A knowledge of the full official dose of all drugs and preparations, might unquestionably prevent a clerk from making an error certainly fatal, through the misreading of a badly written prescription. But nine-tenths of the mistakes that are made, arise through want of care on the part of the clerk.

THE FUNERAL OF JAMES HAGGERTY, who was murdered in New York, took place on Monday. A report of the proceedings sickens the heart. We do not desire to say one word against the dead. His life was notorious, and there are few, if any of our readers, who need be reminded of what he was. Never perhaps in the history of Philadelphia has there been known, gathered together in one crowd for a specific object, so great a number of robbers, assassins and thieves, as on that day assembled at the house of the mother of James Haggerty. Coaches by the hundreds stood before the door, while a reeling, drunken, swearing crowd of ruffians, passed over the threshold, to look upon the dead man's face. Every grog shop in the immediate neighborhood was crowded with drunken pick pockets and gamblers, who varied the days amusement, by ever now and then making a rush on the Police guarding the door of the house where the dead man laid, and with horrible yells, fighting and swearing endeavored to break through and get where Haggerty was lying. Over two thousand persons followed to the grave. What object brought them all together can only be inferred. Living, Haggerty had known them and was of them, and dead they degrade his home with their horrible fights, and profanity, out of respect for the life he had lived. It is an evidence however, of the fearful numbers and power, of that under current of society whose vocation is carried on with noiseless steps in the dark night, and under fear of the law, in the heart of Philadelphia city.

WILKINSBURG.

A bill to incorporate the borough of Wilkinsburg was lately introduced in our Legislature. We raise the same objection to this bill, that we did to the efforts to incorporate Fire Insurance Companies under the act of 1856.

By the first section of the Act of April 1st 1834 the several courts of Quarter Sessions are empowered, by and with the concurrence of the grand jury of the county, to incorporate any town or village within their jurisdiction.

The only exception to this power arises in those cases where an effort is made to incorporate two or more villages together with a tract of open farming country, or to incorporate a village so as to include within the boundaries of the corporation a large body of surrounding farm lands.

It may barely be possible that the effort is in this instance to embrace "a large body of surrounding farm lands," and that the courts have no jurisdiction. If there is no such effort being made, but if Wilkinsburg itself with its proper territory is regarded, then the courts have jurisdiction, and the Legislature really has no right to interfere in the matter at all.

We have had so much special legislation for this County, that we regard every effort that apparently trenches on the rights of our Courts, as containing within itself a wrong that ought in every instance to be avoided. We are left, as usual in the dark, on the real merits of the bill, possibly only to discover after it has become a law, that it is a character of special legislation, thoroughly to be condemned. We hope that our members will see to this in time, and in every instance where a bill is local in its nature be it good or bad, first ascertain if the Courts have power to act in the matter. If they find such to be the fact let the bill be abandoned at once, and those who are interested in the matter seek the proper tribunal. We have heard something about an Independent School District fight in or about Wilkinsburg. Has this anything to do with the bill?

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The report of the Judiciary Committee on the memorial of Mrs. Woodshull and others, asking that such a construction should be placed on the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments as would give to women the right to vote, denies the prayers of the fair petitioners. Whatsoever regret may arise on the part of the memorialists over this decision, it can but be coupled with the feeling that the Committee has met the case impartially, and rendered a decision based on argument. Nor is it any matter whether that argument be sound or unsound, so far as this is concerned. The decision is not a mysterious denial of an asserted right, but the reasons are given why the petition is not favorably received. Every point in the report is accompanied with authorities, and there is no hesitation evinced in giving a full and fair report. If the argument is unsound it may be met, and no doubt will be, by other and stronger arguments. If, however, it is correct, there is no reason whatever why the memorialists should complain of the decision. All they have to do is to take the precedent set for them by the President, "and fight it out on that line if it takes all the summer." That they will eventually succeed, is almost beyond question, although that day may not be in the present generation. The report states that it is not a question for the General Government to decide, but one altogether for the States. This decision, at all events, clears one of the difficulties out of the road, and Mrs. Woodhull et al. now know where they are next to strike. Nor can our representatives in the State Legislature, nor our citizens evade the question, on the ground of it being a National question. That has been decided already by Congress, and the excuse will not do any longer. We may look, therefore, for a direct appeal to our citizens on this subject, and we much mistake not only the influence of the memorialists, but the gallantry of our people, if the end is not gained satisfactorily to those desirous of having Woman Suffrage.

ALABAMA CLAIMS.

A speedy adjustment of the Alabama claims is evidently not desired by some of the members of the Committee on Foreign relations. As at present understood, Great Britain is willing to make a treaty on a basis in substance as follows:

To pay all damages done by the Alabama; to submit the cases of the Shenandoah, Florida, Georgia and other vessels, to arbitration; to bind both countries hereafter not to permit vessels of war to leave their ports to be used against a friendly power; and to make and execute laws to carry out this agreement.

This offer on the part of Great Britain is not, however, favorably received. It is urged that the agreement to pay is confined to the Alabama damages, and that the claims arising from the acts of all other vessels will be materially weakened. This seems to be the strongest reason advanced against the offer for settlement, but there is, it is said, one prominent member of the Committee who is unwilling to have any adjustment unless Great Britain cedes a portion of the Canada territory to the United States.

The object of demanding damages at all, was to meet the claims of citizens for damages arising from the acts of the Alabama, and vessels like her, whose object was pillage and destruction. It was not intended that the United States should seek to take any advantage of the illegal act of England, to deprive that country of any of her treritory. Any such attempt would and ought to reflect on our own government, and there is but little doubt, that beyond one or two who may urge such a measure, the idea will generally be distasteful to the public.

If it means anything it means war. There is not the most remote likelihood that England will consent to any cession of her territory, and we repeat what we have so often urged, that in our present attempt to settle this difficulty, let such a demand be made, that the civilized world will endorse our claim, and then if it is denied, enforce the demand at all hazards.

Nor do we see if such offer has been made by England why it should not be accepted. Let the Alabama Claims be paid, and so far from weakening the Claims in other cases, it will be a precedent that should make them stronger.

DR. NEVILLE.

The trial of Dr Neville, in Philadelphia, charged with the murder of a little child, terminated by his being acquitted on Saturday morning. The jury rendered a verdict without leaving their seats. This case was important in the calender of trials for murder, because of the peculiar nature of the testimony. Three witnesses of the Commonwealth pointed out Dr. Neville as the man they had seen throw the box containing the child into the water. They were perfectly disinterested, were not prejudiced by passion or anger, and beyond all question fully believed that Neville was the man they had seen. They described the horse the man was driving, and the carriage in which he was riding, and the description was in the main correct. They swore positively to the man himself, and had no hesitation in doing so.

On the other hand Dr. Neville produced testimony showing conclusively that they could not have seen him. He accounted in the most minute manner for the whole day, and convinced every one that the three witnesses for the Commonweath were mistaken. So conclusive was his proof that the Press almost as a unit rejoiced over his acquittal, and expressed positive opinions of his entire innocence of the charge.

These two facts, the positive testimony of the Commonwealth, and the conclusive proof on the part of the defence, cannot fail to raise in the mind of every thinking man a very grave query. Neville is undoubtedly innocent—but what would have been his fate, had he been unable, either through the absence of witnesses or any other cause, to prove his whereabouts during that day. He would have been none the less innocent, but the result might have been far different. It is not often a man can find proof to trace his steps in that way, indeed it very rarely happens. Three disinterested witnesses swearing positively to a man unless he could produce such proof as Neville did, would convict him and yet like Neville, he might be entirely free from guilt.

"The Wandering Jew."

[From the Philadelphia Ledger.]

A rumor comes from a village near Antwerp that the historic "Wandering Jew" has been seen in that neighborhood. He is reported as having passed rapidly through the market place, and as having on the outskirts of the village addressed a few words to some children, who, bolder than their companions, had followed in his path. He was dressed in worn and dingy antique garments, carried a long staff, and with his profuse beard streaming in the wind, presented such an awe-inspiring appearance that the terrified villagers fled from him in fright. When he paused and spoke to the children, he told them to go back and inform the people that a new ruler had arisen in Europe, who would bring Belgium, Holland and other countries under his sway, that many strange vicissitudes would be witnessed, and that many proud heads would be brought low. On being questioned as to his name, he replied, "Seek not to know. I have been here before in the past, I shall be here again in the future. Until the end of time shall I walk the earth unceasingly." The apparition then waving its hand, turned from the children and resumed its plodding walk, and disappeared in the distance.

The report of this appearance of the "Wandering Jew" has caused great excitement among the believers in the legend, and the truth of the story is credited throughout Belgium. The legend of the Jew who had witnessed the crucifixion, and had been condemned to live and wander over the earth until the time of Christ's second coming, originated in the middle ages, and can be traced back to the chronicle of the Abbey of St. Albans, which was copied and continued by Matthew Paris. This chronicle relates that in 1228 a certain Archbishop, of Armenia Major, came to England on a visit to sacred places, and while enjoying the hospitality of the Abbey of St. Albans, among other strange stories, related that there was a man Joseph living in Armenia, who had witnessed the crucifixion. This man, originally called Cataphilus, was a porter in Pilate's service, and while Jesus was passing out from the judgment hall impiously struck him on the back, saying, "Go quicker, why do you loiter?" Jesus looked back on him with a severe countenance, and said, "I am going, but you will wait till I return." And accordingly Cataphilus is still waiting his return. After Christ's death he was converted and baptised, and his name was changed to Joseph. In 1842 the Wandering Jew appeared at Hamburg, telling a story similiar to the above. He however, said that his name was Ahasuerus, and that he was a shoemaker who struck Jesus on the back while on the way to Golgotha. This particular person is described as a tall man, of about fifty years of age, with long hair hanging down to his shoulders, barefooted, and wearing a strange costume, consisting of sailor's trousers, a gown reaching to the knees, and a long mantle flowing down to his feet. He spoke good German, in the Saxon dialect. In 1575, the Wandering Jew appeared in the Netherlands, and this time used the Spanish language. A few years later the Wandering Jew arrived at Strasburg, and going before the magistrates, informed them that he had visited the city just two hundred years before, which statement, it is asserted was proved to be true, by a reference to some town records. He next was heard of in the West Indies, and again in France, where, in 1604, he caused considerable sensation, his presence being accompanied by destructive hurricanes. On April 22d, 1774, an individual claiming to be the Wandering Jew appeared in Brussels, and told his story to the common people; he, however, had changed the popular name of this character and called himself Isaac Laquedem. This legend has formed the subject of numerous popular ballads in the different languages of Europe, and also of poems, tales and novels, by distinguished authors. It may here be remarked, that this curious myth seems to have originated in that passage of the Gospel of St. John, twenty-first chapter and twenty-second verse, where Jesus says of John, "If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren that that disciple should not die."

The German Field Post.

The field-post forwarded the following number of letters, packets, etc., to and from the army, from the 16th of July till the 31st of December 1870.

Common letters and postal cards, 67,600,000; daily average 400,000.

Newspapers 1,536,210; daily average 9,090.

Money for official purposes 40,424,800 thalers, in 27,885 letters or packets; daily average 239,200 thalers in 165 letters. Of this sum, 38,025,000 thalers in 4,225 letters were forwarded to, and 2,399,800 thalers in 23,600 letters from the army.

Money for private purposes of the soldiers 13,046,800 thalers in 1,554,800 letters; daily average 77,200 thalers in 9,200 letters. Of this sum, 3,718,000 thalers in 1,030,900 letters were forwarded to, and 9,328,800 thalers in 523,900 letters from the army.

Packets for official purposes, 57,460, daily average 340. Of these, 42,250 were forwarded to, and 15,210 from the army.

Packets for the private purposes of the soldiers 1,219,533. As the post was only opened for these packets on the 15th of October and provisionally closed on the 8th of December, this gives a daily average of 22,173 packets. From the above it will be seen that, from the 16th of July till the 31st of December, the fieldpost forwarded:

Common lettters, newspapers, postal cards, etc.	69,136,210
Money	53,471,600 thalers.
Packets	1,276,993

Immense numbers of fieldpost-letters were forwarded, those sent from Berlin alone were estimated at 120,000.

Skating Extraordinary.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Sunday says:

"Ever since the recent fall of snow, hail and rain, which froze as it fell, the country has presented the appearance of a mammoth skating rink, for such it really was, the hard but smooth crust affording illimitable skating facilities, which were duly appreciated by both old and young skilled in that beautiful and graceful sport. Yesterday's fall of snow, however, suspended the pleasing exercise.

"The skating scenes presented in front of the Avondale School House, and all over the village, were joyous and novel. Hundreds of rosy-cheeked girls and boys flitted over the glassy street, and made their way at will in every direction over the fields and highways. Just such a freeze was never before known in this region.

PANSIES.

O purple hearts that drank the wine
Of royal sunsets, where the sea
Laves golden sands—the favored clime
Of flower and vine—how tenderly
I press your velvet lips to mine;
I hail the message that you brought:
Breathe o'er my soul the mystic sign
Of Love's unspoken thought.

How many grand processions swept
Above you, down the western slope?
How many dewy twilights kept
Watch o'er his budding hope?
And did the whispering breezes wait
To soft caress him, as they sped,
Spice laden, from the golden gate,
To haunt your fair bed?

Dear Pansies, rich in royal dyes,
(And sweet from lying near his lips),
Fair mirrors of his azure eyes,
What can your worth eclipse?
When, darlings, this true heart shall be
Silent and cold, to him repeat
My lips' unuttered mystery—
The secret you have found so sweet.

RAILROADS.

THE Montrose Pa. people are encouraged by the prospect of a railroad connecting then with the general railway system of the State.

THE Chicago and Iowa Railroad is now completed between Aurora and Rochelle, Ill. The rest of the road is being rapidly pushed ahead.

STEPS are being taken to build a railroad between Kokomo and Frankfort, Clinton county, Ind., and a meeting was held last week at Jerome to further the project.

THE Des Moins Valley Railroad is now operated from Keokuk to Fort Dodge, Iowa, 250 miles. Next year it will be pushed from the latter place to the Minnesota line, 85 miles.

THE business men of Sparta, Randolph county, Ill., are discussing the project of constructing a railroad from their town to Coulterville, to connect at that place with the St. Louis, Belleville & Southern Illinois railroad.

THE Macon and Western railroad, of Georgia, is now doing a magnificent business, its whole capacity for freight being strained to the utmost. The freights are mainly of produce from the west, frequently as many as sixty cars per day being loaded at Atlanta.

The Morgantown Post says: A meeting of the directors of the Northern and Southern railroad company, was held on Friday of last week at James O. Watson's house, at which, we understand, it was decided to open books for subscriptions of stock along the proposed route.

A BELLEVERNON, PA., correspondent writes: "The branch railroad from the Connellsville road to Bellevernon it is said will certainly be made. There is every prospect that the requisite amount of stock will be subscribed and the line completed during the present year.

THE Harrisburg State Journal objects to the building of a railroad within five hundred feet of the State Asylum for the Insane, as it would render it uninhabitable for parties afflicted with mental maladies. This project is caused by the fact that the engineers have surveyed and staked off a line through the grounds of the institution named.

ARTICLES of agreement have been filed at the office of the Secretary of the State of Ohio for the consolidation of the Pittsburgh and Continental Railroad Company and the Celina, Huntington and Chicago extension of the same. The name of the consolidated corporation will be the Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Continental and Chicago Railway Company, with a capital of $5,000,000.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: Our Martin's Ferry friends are just beginning to wake up to their interest in the new railroad projects now agitating the people across the river. They have called a meeting for Saturday afteroon at the Town hall, where the pro's and con's of the different routes from this city to Urichsville, Hopedale and Lake Shore railroad, will be freely discussed.

THE Supreme Court of California has recently decided that when a railway company runs its road through a field without building a fence to prevent animals from getting on the track, it is bound by implied promise to pay the owner of the land for any of his cattle that may be be killed on the ground through want of a proper fence. The Court says that it is the right of the owner of the land to pasture his cattle and horses in his fields, and that the law does not regard it as negligent on his part if he pastures them in a field traversed by a railroad.

THE Iowa Central Company is taking up the extension of its road from Albia to Moulton, Appanoose county. The Centreville Citizen says the agent has asked the citizens of Washington Township to aid the road by voting a tax of five per cent. a total of $10,000 promising if that shall be done, that the road shall be completed to Moulton by August next. The same gentleman visited Douglass and Taylor townships, and informed the people that a 5 per cent. tax must be forthcoming or the Central could not put down the iron, although the road bed is graded through from Albia to Moulton. The Central's object is to connect St. Paul, Minn., and St. Louis, Mo.

THE St. Louis Board of Trade wants another Pacific railroad. At a late meeting the Board resolved to memorialize Congress to enact such liberal and needed legislation as will secure the earliest possible construction, by the goveanment, of a more national central Pacific railroad to San Diego and San Francisco; said road to be a double track of steel rails; the lands along the route, together with their proceeds, to be sacredly reserved for the retirement of the bonds issued for its construction; the road bed when completed, to be owned by the government, and under its supervision, and on which every one shall be permitted to run his trains, whether as an individual or incorporated company, under similar conditions as lines of boats are allowed to navigate the canals of the country; the government to levy toll upon the tonage transported sufficient only to maintain the road bed in perfect order.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Republicans of Michigan will hold a State Convention—to nominate a Justice of the Supreme Court, in place of James V. Campbell, and two Regents of the State University, in place of James A. Sweezey and Cyrus M. Stockwell—in Lansing Feb. 23d.

GATH is quite enamored of the Free Trade League, of which he says: "The Free Trade League is merely two or three young gentlemen in the front room, who assist to prepare and forward the publications of the League, the Secretary in the back room, who works from nine o'clock until five, paying twice his own salary out of his pocket into the funds of the concern, and a board of gentlemen who assemble at fixed intervals to talk together for their mutual encouragement. If there is any higher example for young men of wealth to take in this life than this of the Free Trade League, I should like to read it." This might seem like praise if it came from any other source than it did, viz: a letter from the notorious George Alfred Townsend to the Chicago Tribune, recently purchased by the Free Traders.

A Woeful Tale.

A North German paper receives directly from a relative of the young Hanoverian officer in question the following touching recital: The company to which the young officer belonged captured twenty-five Francs-tireurs, and, upon inquiring at headquarters as to their disposal, received orders that they be immediately shot. The duty devolved upon him. The young man, though no coward, hesitated in the execution of such a terrible duty, but, in order not to appear too weak, he repressed his feelings, and had them conducted to a neighboring wood, where, upon a little elevation, they were to meet their fate. Among them was a youth of hardly eighteen years, with a gentle and almost maiden like face, in which culture was plainly to be traced. This poor unfortunate had not the courage to die. He trembled in all his body, and a stream of tears coursed down his deathly pale cheeks. Suddenly fear seized him in a terrible way, and before the guard could prevent him he had thrown himself at the feet of the German Officer, and convulsively clasped his knees and begged in unutterable woe for his life. Fear gave him most touching words of prayer, he besought the deeply grieved officer by his own parents not to rob his of their only son. It would have moved a stone. The heart of the young German swam in tears; still he dared not disobey his military duty. It was the most fearful moment of his life. The youth was led back to the fatal spot, and in another moment his misery was at an end—the balls had riddled his heart. The feeling of pity however, so overcame the young German that he fell into a swoon. He awoke a madman, and is to-day in an asylum in Germany.

THE new Public Library building in Cincinnati has been contracted for, and will be finished at the earliest possible time. There are to be ninety-two alcoves, arranged in five stories. There will be elevators for sending the books up and down, worked by steam. The capacity of the shelves will be 250,000 volumes. The gas lights will be placed between a glass ceiling and a glass roof, and the warming is to be effected by heating the tiling of the floor.

OUR INVISIBLE ENEMIES.

The raw, astringent atmosphere of winter creates and aggravates many ailments. To protect themselves as effectually as possible against the invisible dangars which surround them at this season, should be the especial care of persons constitutionally delicate. As there is no medicine, preparation in use which so thoroughly braces and invigorates the stomach, the liver and the nerves, as Hostetter's Bitters, a course of that agreeable tonic is particularly advisable for dyspeptic, bilious and nervous sufferers, in the cold, damp, and trying weather which generally prevails in our climate at this period of the year. Sudden chills have a very bad effect upon dyspeptics and individuals of bilious habits, not unfrequently producing congestion of the liver or bowels, or low fevers, sometimes of an intermittent or remittent character. Attacks of rheumatism are also to be apprehended, and where there is a tendency to that complaint the Bitters will be found the best preventive. The operation of the great vegetable tonic is direct and simple. It stimulates and strengthens the digestive and secretive organs and the nerves, and puts the system in a condition to resist the action of those formidable foes of vitality, a low temperature and unwholesome winds and fogs. By quickening the superficial circulation, without creating anything approaching to fever, it imparts tone to the skin, and thus renders the surface of the body comparatively impervious to unhealthy external influences.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.

1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.

2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.

3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.

4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.

5th. It is highly ornamental.

6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.

7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.

Safe! Profitable! Permanent!
JAY COOKE & CO. offer for sale at Par and Accrued interest the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.
These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
The bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Twenty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thompson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10), in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.
Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor.
For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan.
For sale by the following Agents:
"After thorough investigation we have accepted an Agency for the sale of these popularly approved Bonds, and confidently recommend them to our customers and investors generally."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FINANCIAL.
NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN
OF THE
Northern Pacific
RAILROAD CO.
SECURED BY
First Mortgage on Railroad and Land Grant.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.

Offer for sale at par and accrued interest the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They are free from United States Tax, and are issued of the following denominations: Coupons $100, $500, and $1,000; Registered $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

With the same entire confidence with which we commended Government bonds to Capitalists and People, we now, after the fullest investigation recommend these Northern Pacific Railroad bonds to our friends and the general public.

GOLD PAYMENT.—Both principal and interest are payable in American gold coin, at the office of Jay Cooke & Co., New York City—the principal at the end of 30 years, and the interest (at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum) half-yearly, first of January and July.

PERFECT SAFETY.—The bonds we are now selling are secured by a first and only mortgage on all the property and rights of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, which will embrace on the completion of the work:

1. Over Two Thousand Miles of Road, with rolling stock, buildings, and all other equipments.

2. Over Twenty-two Thousand Acres of Land to every mile of finished road. This land, agricultural, timbered and mineral, amounting in all to more than Fifty Million Acres, consists of alternate sections, reaching twenty to forty miles on each side of the track, and extending in a broad fertile belt from Wisconsin through the richest portions of Minnesota, Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, to Puget Sound.

While the Government does not directly guarantee the bonds of the Road, it thus amply provides for their full and prompt payment by an unreserved grant of land, the most valuable ever conferred upon the great national improvement.

THE MORTGAGE.—The Trustees under the Mortgage, are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company. They will directly and permanently represent the interests of the First Mortgage bond holders, and are required to see that the proceeds of land sales are used in purchasing and cancelling the bonds of the Company if they can be bought before maturity at not more than 10 per cent. premium; otherwise the Trustees are to invest the proceeds of land sales in United States Bonds or Real Estate Mortgages for the further security of Northern Pacific bondholders. Also, that they have at all times in their control, as security, 500 acres of average land to every $1,000 of outstanding first mortgage bonds, besides the railroad itself and all its equipments and franchises.

PROFITABLENESS.—Of course nothing can be safer than the bonds of the United States, but as the Government is no longer a borrower, and as the Nation's present work is not that of preserving its existence, but that of DEVELOPING A CONTINENT, we remind those who desire to increase their income and obtain a more permanent investment, while still having a perfectly reliable security that

United States 5-20's at their average premium yield the present purchaser less than 5½ per cent. gold interest. Should they be redeemed in five years, and specie payments be resumed, they would really pay only 4½ per cent., or if in three years only 3½ per cent., as the present premium would meanwhile be sunk.

Northern Pacific 7-30's selling at par in currency yield the investor 7 3-10 per cent. gold interest absolutely for thirty years, free from United States tax, $1,100 currency invested now in United States 5-20's will yield per year in gold, say $62.00. $1,100 currency invested now in Northern Pacific 7-30's will yield per year in gold $80.30. Here is a difference in annual income of nearly one-third, besides a difference of 7 to 10 per cent. in principal, when both classes of bonds are redeemed.

THE ROAD NOW BUILDING.—Work was begun in July last on the eastern portion of the line, and the money provided, by the sale to stockholders of some six millions of the Company's bonds, to build and equip the road from Lake Superior across Minnesota to the Red River of the North—233 miles. The grading on this division is now well advanced, the iron is being rapidly laid; several thousand men are at work on the line, and about the first of August next this important section of the road will be in full operation. In the meantime orders have been sent to the Pacific coast for the commencement of the work on the western end in early Spring, and thereafter the work will be pushed, both eastward and westward, with as much speed as may be consistent with solidity and a wise economy.

RECEIVABLE FOR LANDS.—These bonds will be at all times, before maturity, receivable, at 1-10, in payment for the Company's lands, at their lowest cash price.

BONDS EXCHANGEABLE.—The registered bonds can be exchanged at any time for coupons, the coupons for registered, and both these can be exchanged for others, payable, principal and interest, at any of the financial centres of Europe, in the coin of the various European countries.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these can do so with any of our agents, who will allow the highest current price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this loan.

SECURITY! JUSTICE! ECONOMY!
Life Association
OF AMERICA.
West Pennsylvania Department.
OFFICE:
100 Fourth Avenue,
PITTSBURGH.
ANTHONY M. COCHRANE, }
JAMES M. MACRUM, } Managers.

THE LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, organized in St. Louis, in June, 1868, has already attained the proportion of a NATIONAL INSTITUTION.

Its plan of HOME INVESTMENTS—by which the Trustees of every Department invest the funds thereof—gives a sense of security to those insuring, that cannot otherwise be realized. Hence it is everywhere welcomed as a LOCAL INSTITUTION—all the advantages of which it combines with those resulting from its extensive field of operations.

The JUSTICE of the principle of HOME INVESTMENTS—giving every community the use of the money it invests in insurance—is universally acknowledged.

Nor less is ECONOMY a characteristic of this ASSOCIATION. It has actually secured two-thirds of its earliest business at about one-third the cost of the ordinary business of most other companies;—and the ECONOMY would be still more strikingly apparent, if the comparison were made with their earliest business.

Hence, for these and other reasons, the greater DIVIDEND PAYING POWER of the LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, and consequently the greater CHEAPNESS and SECURITY of insuring in it will at once be manifest.

The plan of the LIFE ASSOCIATION is universally approved by business men in all sections of the country.

"Success is the Best Criterion."

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. [illegible]

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, February 1, 1871.

The local money market is without any marked change. There is rather more doing in stocks, and the sales made indicate better prices and large demand.

The eastern market is scarcely so strong, and general quotations show a reaction in both the Government and Stock Boards.

Gold maintains the quotation made yesterday and higher figures are predicted.

Money continues easy, but the amount of business transacting is comparatively light.

Robinson Bros., No. 78 Fourth avenue, furnish the following comparative quotations of bonds and stocks, from their latest advices by wire:

Governments quiet and generally steady; 10-40's, registered, sold at ex-interest of three months. Stocks dull and heavy, with the exception of Lake Shore and Wabash. Money easy at 5 per cent. as the ruling rate. State securities dull and nominal.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, February 1, 1871.

APPLES—In steady demand and limited supply, though not quoted higher. $4.00 to $5.50 per bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—Is in good supply and dull; quoted at 60@70 cts per gallon.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash, 4 cts; Refined do 4¾; Pearl Ash, 9¾; Potash, 7¾.

BUTTER—Continues dull and with no abatement in the receipts and no improvement in the demand, prices are weak and drooping; we now quote at 20 to 25 for common to good, and 27 to 28 for strictly prime.

BEANS—$1.50@2 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Small sales at 30@32c.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—3¾@3¾ cts.

BROOM CORN—Is coming in more freely and while the market is reported quiet, there is no change to make in quotations, 5@6¾ cts.

CEMENT—Sales Louisville Hydraulic at $2.00 and Calcined Plaster at $2¾ per bbl.

COAL—Sales of Anthracite at $9@9¾ per ton by the car load, delivered.

CHEESE—The demand continues light, but there is no change in prices, 14@16 cts., according to quality.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted at $12 to $18 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Is firm and higher, in sympathy with the still further advance in crude, and we now quote standard brands, in a jobbing way at 27@28c.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet and unchanged. Peaches, 8¾@9c for quarters, and 11@12c for halves. Apples, 6@7c for ordinary; 7¾@8c for prime bright, and 8¾@9c for sliced. Blackberries, 12@13c.

DRESSED HOGS—The arrival continue light though the supply seems to be adequate to the demand and prices are unchanged, 7¾@8 cts.

EGGS—There is more inquiry for strictly fresh, but it is difficult to realize anything over 28 cts. Pickled, continue very dull and are hard to sell at any price.

FLOUR—Is less excited under the influence of the advices from the West, though prices are still maintained. We continue to quote western flours at $7.00@7.25 for red winter; $7.00@7.25 for white; $7.00@7.25 for spring extras and $7.00@7.50 for choice Minnesota bakers' flour. Rye Flour $5.50.

FEATHERS—No 1 live geese feathers 80c. to the trade, and 85 for small lots.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat are increasing somewhat but with a continued good milling demand, prices are still fairly maintained; we reported sales of good to prime red at $1.42 and white is worth $1.50 [illegible] ... Some dealers can learn, there have been but so far as [illegible] above our quotations, very few if any [illegible] we now quote at 47@48, Oats firm and higher [illegible] small lots in store, buying and [illegible] days have been [illegible]. Receipts for [illegible] pretty firmly by very meagre. Corn is [illegible] there does not seem to be much demand for it, and furthermore, the inquiry is mainly for small lots; we continue to quote at [illegible] for car load lots in bulk, and 60@70 in a jobbing way. Rye is firm with very little offering or arriving, and a considerable inquiry for it, though there is no quotable advance in prices. Barley is quiet and unchanged, 90@95c for spring, and 90@95c for fall.

GROCERIES—Market continues active and prices fully maintained. Coffee expected to take an upward tendency and higher prices are expected. The receipts of New Orleans Sugars and Molasses continue liberal, but as the demand is up to the supply, there is no accumulation of stock. Our heavy dealers, who bought early in the season, are very firm in their views that New Orleans Sugars and Molasses will soon command better prices, basing their expectation on the fact that a very large portion of the receipts at New Orleans, recently, are the product of frosted cane, and there is no doubt but what this will have a tendency to appreciate the value of the crop not injured by the frost.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 22; Prime, 19; Good, 18; Fair, 17; Roasting, 16@16¾.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 65; Silver Drips, 65; Lovering's, [illegible]; other grades, [illegible].

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11¾; prime, [illegible]; fully fair, 10¾; Porto Rico Sugars [illegible]; Cuba, 10@11; Demerara, 11@12¾; Refined Sugars—Hard Sugars, 14¾; A Coffee [illegible]; Extra C, 13¾; C, yellow, 12@12¾.

TEA—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 60; Good, [illegible]; Fair, $1. Lower grades down to [illegible]. [illegible]

RICE—Choice Carolina, [illegible]; prime, [illegible]; good, [illegible].

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

EAST LIBERTY STOCK YARDS, WEDNESDAY, Feb. 1, 1871.

FREIGHTS.

	Cattle.	Hogs.	Sheep.
Philadelphia	$80 00	$80 00	$81 00

CATTLE.

The receipts thus far this week have not been large, but owing to unfavorable advices from the east the market is slow, and the advance established last week, is almost, if not altogether, lost. There is a larger attendance of buyers, but as a general thing they are not so anxious to buy as they were last week, from which it is inferred that their purchases here last week did not turn out well; otherwise, they would not be so bearish. As will be seen by the report of sales, below annexed, several lots of good to prime shipping cattle changed hands within the range of 6@7c, the same grades, last week, brought at least ¾, perhaps ¾, more.

SHEEP.

The arrivals thus far have been larger than usual, though at a reduction of a ¼ to ½ of a cent per pound, the market has been fairly active the sales in the aggregate having been unusually large; all things considered, trade has been fair, though as already noted, prices, as compared with last week, are a shade lower, and if the receipts should continue as large as they have been the past two days, it is probable that there will be a still further decline before the close of the week. Quotations may be fairly given at 4@5 for common to medium and 5@6 for prime to extra—one bunch averaging 106 lbs brought 6¾.

HOGS.

The receipts have not been large thus far this week but with under the influence of adverse reports from New York, the market is weak, and as compared with Saturday, York Hogs are off a full half cent and Philadelphia Hogs may be quoted a ¾ lower. Sales of the former at 7¾@7¾ and the latter at 8@8¾. The offerings have consisted mostly of the light and medium grades, and this accounts to some extent for the sharp decline in York Hogs.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, February 1, 1871.

The Petroleum market was weak and very dull to-day, yet in view of the existence of a formidable bull movement, operators, as might be expected, are very sensitive, and are exercising more than usual caution. There is no telling when this bull movement may collapse, and it is this that causes those who are outside of the ring to operate cautiously; when it does break, there will no doubt be a sharp decline in prices, and the policy of the trade here, is to be prepared for almost anything. We hear it stated, that one producer, who holds in tank one hundred thousand barrels of oil has been buying more and that too, at big figures; if the market should break it is probable that he will discover that he has more oil than he wants. It was reported to-day, that there was trouble in the Erie Clique and that one of its members has gone under—it would be a good thing of the entire party would go under, clear out of sight.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, January 31.—The inclemency of the weather, the prospect of an early thaw, the frozen streams, and the cessation of hostilities in Europe, tend to dampen the ardent spirits of short supply holders, who were looking for an early trade and an upward tendency of prices. The high freights, bad weather and lifeless condition of trade throughout the entire country, owing to the scarcity of money, keep buyers out of market, and apart from operations in the early clothing trade, there is little stir or animation in the market for the general sale of dry goods. RIVER NEWS.

The river rose rapidly all day yesterdy, and was still rising last evening with 13 feet in the channel. The rise, as yet, is mainly in the Monongahela, but there will, doubtless, be some water out of the Allegheny also. Weather has again turned cold.

The Juniata, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at 12 o'clock.

The Rover, Capt. Thos. Greenlee, will be here another day or two, and will at once commence loading for St. Louis.

Eighteen feet, six inches reported at Brownsville last evening, and falling.

The Silver Lake, from New Orleans, after a long absence, is the only arrival we have to report. Her cargo consisted mainly of sugar and molasses.

The Belle of Texas, arrived at New Orleans yesterday, and the May Lowery on Tuesday.

The Savanna, from St. Louis, is among the first boats due.

The St. Charles left Cincinnati for this port on Tuesday.

The old and reliable mail line have two boats leaving daily for Brownsville and Geneva, one at 8 a. m., and the other at 4:30 p. m. The agent, Capt. Carlisle, can always be found at the wharf boat during business hours.

The Granite State, Capt. Kerr, is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-morrow, leaving promptly at 4 p. m. It is a characteristic of Capt. Kerr, always to leave promptly on time.

The Carrie Brooks will leave for Zanesville on Saturday at 4 p. m.

—Latest advices in regard to Captain M. W. Beltzhoover, are to December 10, at which time he was alive and well, and not as hard to discover as that other renowned traveler, Dr. Livingstone, who is "doing" Africa. Captain Beltzhoover, on the day aforesaid, was in Cairo, Egypt, and about to sail up the Nile a thousand miles, expecting to return to Cairo in twenty or thirty days. His party included Geo. W. Fishback, of the Missouri Democrat, Mr. Hoyle and sister, a Mr. Clark, of New York, and others. The company had chartered a steamboat for the voyage, and anticipated, of course, much pleasure and many interesting incidents.

—Wharfia s at Vicksburg are amusing themselves by stealing cotton from steamboats, by tumbling it overboard after dark from their sterns. The Pargoud lost sixteen bales, and the Lucy Keira one bale in this way a few days since.

—A telegram from Cairo says James Hudsor, mate of the towboat Bigley, has been missing ever since leaving Paducah. He is supposed to have been drowned.

—The Mary Alice, after running into the Dick Fulton on Sunday and turning her, ran into the Laura, above Memphis, damaging her considerably.

—The Carrie Brooks left for Wheeling early on Wednesday morning. She will arrive again to-night, and return to Zanesville as usual on Saturday.

—The Warner reshipped her Pittsburgh freight on the Wauanita, at Cincinnati. W. H. Hall and Wm. Gosney pilot her to this port.

—The towboat Viola has been sold by the Lexington & Big Sandy Railroad to W. W. Little & Co., of Portsmouth, O., for $4,000.

—The Bermuda, in descending the falls on Sunday, had her fore and aft hog-chains broken. She repairs at New Albany.

—The Wild Duck, en route from St. Louis, has two barges of ore and one of pig iron; also 150 barrels fire clay.

—Capt. I L. Thompson has sold one-fourth of the W. F. Curtis to Levy Barber, of Harmer, O., for $2,600.

—The J. R. Gilmore arrived at Nashville last Saturday with 100,000 bushels of Pittsburgh coal.

—Capt. James Hamilton and C. C. Cable pilot the Exchange to Cincinnati.

—The Bellevernon it is understood will load here for New Orleans.

Births, betrothals, marriages, divorces and deaths are the new headings of a department in the evening Leader. Why not include matrimonial desertions?

Elizabeth Miller makes information before Alderman McAdams, charging Tonney Snyder with malicious mischief by breaking her windows and threatening to do her bodily harm. Warrant issued.

Allegheny wants Rothermel's painting of the Gettysburg Battle, and has made application for it through Representative Warner, promising to build a fire proof house and keep it always open for exhibition.

The following letters are held for postage at the Pittsburgh Postoffice, Feb. 1: Buchanan & Bro. L., Lawrenceburg, Pa. 3. Cole Mrs. Mary, Pittsburgh, Pa. 2. Cain Della, Pittsburgh, Pa. 2.

Annay Quigley makes information before Alderman McAdams charging Ann Mahoney with surety of the peace; threatening to do her bodily harm, and calling her all kind of names. The parties reside at Fenian Row. Warrant issued.

The Allegheny Police and Firemen were paid yesterday. Mayor Callow and Chief Crow managed the finances and secured the money—the old appropriations having been exhausted and the new one not having yet been made. The total amount was a fraction over $5,000.

Lock-up at Soho.—Yesterday afternoon the new City Property Committee met and organized, by electing Col. Wm. Phillips as chairman. The project of establishing a police station house at Soho, was discussed and a sub-committee appointed to inquire into the matter. No other business of a public character was transacted.

The Woman's Suffrage Association of Allegheny County, meets the first Thursday of every month at 2½ o'clock, at their hall over the Third National Bank, corner of Wood street and Virgin alley. At its meeting this evening the Rev. Mr. Gemon, of Wesley Chapel, will deliver an address on the "womanly woman." The public are cordially invited.

Building Inspector's Report.—Building Inspector Reed reports the following figures from his department for January: During the month, permits were given for the erection of twenty-four buildings. Twelve of them were for brick buildings, nine for frame and three for additions to other buildings. The receipts in money amount to eighty-eight dollars.

A petition was presented to the Legislature yesterday by the Park Commissioners of Allegheny City, praying that the Rothermel historical painting of the battle of Gettysburg be placed in their possession for proper keeping. It would be a graceful concession on the part of the Eastern members of the Legislature to award the custody of this coveted painting to the loyal and patriotic county of Allegheny.

Incorrigible.—Wm. A. McFarland yesterday appeared before Justice Krehan, of Birmingham and preferred a charge of incorrigibility against Daniel Doddy, a lad whom he had taken from the Poor Farm with the intention of raising him, but his persistent misconduct has made that impossible. The Justice informed us that the lad will be sent to the House of Refuge to-day.

Land Slide.—Yesterday afternoon an immense mass of earth and stones slid from the side of the hill about three hundred yards beyond the end of the Pittsburgh and Birmingham Bridge on to the track of the Connellsville Railroad. Notwithstanding a large force of men were immediately set to work to remove it, the West Newton accommodation while leaving at 4:30 was delayed about half an hour before a passage could be cleared.

Man Missing.—Last Friday a farmer named Hugh Pollock started from his home, in Indiana township, with a sled load of produce for this city. Last Saturday evening Officer Dush discovered the two horses in the street with part of the harness on, but no sled or man near. A son of Mr. Pollock's came to town and identified the animals as the ones which his father owned. Any information concerning the missing man will be thankfully received by his family.

Threatened to Shoot.—Mary Eberts and Franz Lambertine live on the South Side and are not on as amiable terms as neighbors should be. Franz, as Mary alleges in an information before Esquire Heisel, of East Birmingham, yesterday, has indulged in dire threats against the safety of her person, threatening that if she continued to make a thoroughfare of a certain coal pit that he would cut her entrails out and shoot her. The Squire, moved by Mary's tale, had Franz arrested and held for a hearing.

Cross Suits. Thomas and Joseph Maguire are denizens of some portion of the old Fifth ward and yesterday they got into a war of words which ended by Joseph's striking Thomas in the face with his fist, whereupon the latter at once proceeded to the office of Alderman O'Donnel and entered a suit for assault and battery against his assailant, who was arrested and brought to the Alderman's office and held for a hearing. As a justification of his offence Joseph made oath that Thomas had shaken his fist in his face. He also was held for a hearing.

Thrown from a Buggy.

Last night Mr. John Dean, Sr., of Allegheny, met with a severe accident. He was driving down Federal street in his buggy, when a wheel of the vehicle came off at the railroad crossing, which caused him to be thrown out with great violence. He was picked up and taken to his residence on Stockton avenue. His injuries, though painful, are not serious.

Ground Hog Day.

To-day is "Ground Hog Day." We are told that his hogship takes an airing, in other words, comes out of his hole, and if the sun is shining and the animal observes his shadow, he retires again to winter quarters and does not make his appearance in six weeks—the six weeks to be stormy winter weather. On the other hand, if this prophetic and observing animal does not see his counterpart on that day, we will be favored with pleasant weather the remainder of the winter season. There are no ground hogs about Pittsburgh, and the gutter hogs won't fill the bill so we care whether the sun shines or not.

Artery Severed.

It is with regret that we announce that Matthew Zollers, a boy of 16, son of Theodore Zollers, of the firm of Page, Zollers & Duff, glass manufacturers, met with quite a serious accident at their factory, in East Birmingham yesterday. He was engaged in carrying "rollers," or rather the cylinders from which window glass is made, from the factory to the cutting-room, when one of them broke and a fragment entered his arm above the elbow, severing an artery. He bled profusely and was at once taken to the office of a physician whose name we were unable to learn, and the discovered artery taken up.

Monongahela Bridge.

The Board of Directors of the Monongahela Bridge Company met at their office yesterday afternoon to hear the report of the committee appointed some time ago to advertise for plans and specifications for a new bridge to replace the present structure.

The committee reported that they had received plans and specifications from the parties and corporations named below: [illegible] of New York; Smith, of St. Louis; Latrobe, of Baltimore; [illegible] of Cincinnati; [illegible] of Cleveland, O.; [illegible] of St. Louis; [illegible] of Allegheny city; the Keystone Bridge Company, and the inventor of the [illegible] of Allegheny city. [illegible] referred back to the committee, to make a selection [illegible].

HORRIBLE DEATH.

Another Fatal Accident on the West Penna Railroad—The Coroner's Investigation Fails to Discover his Name—The Train Officials Exonerated from Blame.

A few days ago we gave an account of the killing of Christian Spindler by a locomotive, near Millvale station on the West Pennsylvania railroad. To-day we are called upon to record another fatal accident which happened yesterday near the same place.

The testimony of the witnesses of the disaster fully explains its character. The engineer of the train, Edward Layton, saw the man, a tall, stout laborer, walking on the track of the Pennsylvania Central railroad, near Millvale station. The train, which was then running on schedule time, the Pacific Express was on the north track, and as the locomotive entered the deep cut and curve near Milvale, Mr. Layton sounded his whistle to apprise any one near of the approach of the cars. About the middle of the cut he came suddenly upon a man walking on the track. Knowing that he would meet an eastern bound freight near where he was, he gave the alarm whistle, and the brakes were put down to stop the train. It was too late, however, for as the man turned to go to the other track he saw the engine of the freight train fast approaching. Said the fireman, William Walters, a young man, "when I saw that the man would be struck I jumped off the box, for I didn't care to see him killed." The unfortunate fellow evidently little thought of the danger he was in, but a moment after this he was struck. The baggage master, L. H. Frederick, said that hearing the sharp whistle of alarm given, he threw open the door of his car and in a moment felt the bump of the wheels passing over the body. Looking back he saw the man, then dead, thrown out from between the car wheels. The train was stopped and going back the body was found but mangled beyond our power to describe.

The inquest was a very searching one, but the action of the railroad men was found to be without blame. Bothe the conductor and baggage master testified that Mr. Layton the engineer was in the habit of using the locomotive whistle freely when approaching narrow places, and when meeting other trains. It was also testified that it would have been utterly impossible to have stopped the train in time to have saved the life now lost. The deceased was a man about fifty years of age, about five feet ten inches high, and had black hair and red whiskers. He was of dark complexion and his clothing was considerably soiled with oil and grease.

His remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of W. H. Devore on Grant street, whence they will be buried to-day.

OPERATING AGAIN.

Counterfeit Shovers at Work—Plenty of the "Queer" in Town—Detectives Non-Plussed.

We are blessed just now with a few active, shrewd, and wary operators in counterfeit money, who are "pushing things;" thus far they have been very bold and yet have managed to keep themselves scarce in the localities visited by detectives. From the style in which they are working, it is pretty evident that they have plenty of the "queer" and are accustomed to the precarious business—though it seems not to be so precarious with them. Within a few weeks numbers of instances have been recorded of their operations. After the first week they kept a little quiet, but as soon as the detectives relaxed a trifle in vigilance, they commenced work again.

Tuesday night one of the men succeeded in passing $30 in three different bills, at as many stores, in Lawrenceville. In each case a trifling purchase was made and the bill given, when "change" was received. From the descriptions given by the victimized, it is certain that the same man was the operator in each case. The bills are on the National bank of Poughkeepsie, and very good imitations of the genuine.

After winning such success in Lawrenceville, the fellow seems next to have turned his attention to the vicinity of East Liberty. He was even more successful there, "shoving" two twenty-dollar bills in a couple of stores by the same method pursued elsewhere. The bills are on the same bank, showing that it is their favorite for operations in this locality.

Yesterday morning the victims severally appeared before the United States authorities, grief-stricken and with the bogus bills. The detectives are non-plussed for once, and the more efforts they make the further off they seem to get from the criminals. The fellows are evidently old hands, and are not to be caught easily.

It is a consolation, "if misery loves company," to know that there are others outside of our city operating. On the last trip up from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh the clerks and bar-keeper were each taken in by a rural looking stranger for $20 each. The passenger got off the boat a short distance below Pittsburgh and carried about $35 for his profit. There is no clue to him, either "It's a long lane, &c.," and our detectives may yet come to the turn.

POLICE COMMITTEE.

Organized for 1871—Items of Business.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the new Police Committee of Pittsburgh Councils assembled at the Mayor's office and organized for 1871, by the election of Mr. John H. Hare, of the Fourth ward, as Chairman.

The Police pay roll for the month, amounting to $8,11 70, and monthly bills $5.46, were approved and warrants ordered.

The committee re-appointed Dr. A. Murdoch physician for the lock-up, at a salary of $200 per annum.

A bill was presented from E. M. Johnston, of the Seventeenth ward, for $75. This matter was brought before the committee of the previous year, but no action taken upon it. It appears that during 1869 the police in that district made Johnston's office, an Aldermanic sanctum, their headquarters during the evenings at intervals when they made their rounds and stopped to infuse a little fresh vigor into the official body by the cheerful glow of a fire. Of course, to maintain the fire coal was necessary. The city had a "gone half" in the office supply, but had never paid any rent—at any point of like character in the city. Johnston's bill was presented, and astonished them,—rent and coal were included. The committee for 1870 refused to pay the bill. Yesterday, when the matter came up again, a sub-committee was appointed to investigate the case and report.

The matter of re-leasing Wilkin's Hall was next considered. A statement was made by the Mayor that he had spoken to the agent of the owner of the property who informed him that $4,000 had been fixed upon as the annual rental. Heretofore, under a lease which was made some years ago the city has paid but $1,000, but this lease is now expired.

After some discussion a sub-Committee was appointed to act in conjunction with the Mayor, in leasing the hall until January 1st 1872—the Committee indulging the pleasing hope that by that time the new City Buildings will have been so far completed as to be ready for occupancy.

A petition was received from a former member of the force, who had his leg broken while off duty, and had been laid up for several weeks thereby, asking for the amount of his wages for that time. The paper was laid on the table—the Committee holding that as the accident occurred while the man was off duty he was not entitled to any wages for the time of his sickness.

The remainder of the business was of a routine character, and not of public interest.

GORED BY A COW.

A Lady Severely Injured—Miraculous Escape of her Child—An Infuriated Animal's Freaks.

Considerable excitement was created in the vicinity of the Union Depot yesterday by the freaks of a wild cow. The animal, with a lot of others, was being driven along Liberty street, when it suddenly turned from the drove and made an attack upon a lady who was passing along the thoroughfare. Perceiving its approach, the lady, Mrs. Kober, who had a child in her arms, attempted to get out of the way. In doing so she ran into the street; and just then a train of cars was backed down. By a misslip she fell close to the track but managed to turn aside and avoid by a few inches the wheels. The cow by this time seeing her fall, made a plunge and gored her in the arm. Fortunately the child was protected by the mother, and escaped unhurt, and the animal before it could make a second attack was frightened off by the cars and started off in a different direction.

Mrs. Kober was picked up and taken to her home on Fifth avenue, where she received medical attention. She was quite severely cut by the horns of the cow, and what with her injuries and the fright, fared ill. The escape of the child was miraculous.

The cow was soon after secured, and performed no other eccentric feat.

COOL THIEF.

Impudence Personified—A Thief Takes Possession of a House, and Disappears at His Leisure.

Mrs. McTighe's boarding house on Grant street was the scene of an impudent thief's operations Tuesday night. It seems the landlady was away, and had given the domicil in charge of a friend—the boarders being all absent too. About nine o'clock the fellow stepped in and frightened the housekeeper—at least that's her story—so much that she was afraid to attempt his ejectment. He then proceeded to kindle a fire, and made himself perfectly comfortable for a time. Finally, becoming tired of the house, he coolly proceeded to a wardrobe, selected a fine pair of pantaloons belonging to a boarder, and with these and several other articles convenient to carry, disappeared.

The police were notified of the circumstance yesterday morning, but they have not apprehended the thief.

The Dental Establishment of the West.

Passing along Penn street yesterday, we dropped into the great steam dental establishment of Dr. G. W. Spencer, and were surprised as well by the richness as good taste of its appointments. The entire establishment has been renovated and improved at a cost of several thousand dollars, and now presents an appearance of elegance and richness not surpassed by any similar establishment west of the mountains. The Doctor is never content with a mediocre position in anything he undertakes, but keeps the most elegant dental rooms, drives the finest team, and maintains one of the most elegant out-of-town seats hereabouts. He aims to be first in everything, and especially in his profession, in which he is unapproached and unapproachable. Reader, if there be any dental operation you desire performed judiciously, expeditiously and satisfactorily, or any dental work you want executed to please, call on the Doctor and he will accommodate you. His place is at 234 Penn street, and the "latch string" is always out.

The Gymnasium.

The project for reestablishing the Pittsburgh Gymnasium, which met with such prompt encouragement and support at the outset, we regret to say, has not now the most favorable prospects. This fact arises from the delinquency of stockholders, who, in the great majority of cases, have not paid up their assessments. This is very annoying to the officers and directors, and if the delinquents do not come to time promptly with their money, the praiseworthy project will have to be abandoned, inasmuch as no charter can be procured until all the stock is paid in. We hope subscribers will not permit the enterprise to fail at this stage of proceedings.

Dr. Wenner, known as the Indian Physician, whose office was formerly on old St. Clair street, but now at No. 231 Penn, above Sixth (late St. Clair), gives special attention to the treatment of all chronic diseases. The Doctor is a graduate in medicine of the Eclectic Medical College of Cincinnati, having attended lectures in that school as early as 1845-6—hence twenty-five years in practice. Give him a call. He will cure if your case is at all curable. ttfs

THE NEW LICENSE LAW.

The Local Option Bill Now Pending in the Legislature.

Herewith we present the text of an act now before the Legislature, entitled "An Act to permit the voters of every Ward, Borough and Township in this Commonwealth to vote every three years on the question of granting Licenses to sell intoxicating liquors."

SEC. 3. Wherever, by the returns of election in any ward, borough or township aforesaid, it shall appear that there is a majority against license, it shall not be lawful for any license to issue for the sale of spirituous vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors in said ward borough or township at any time thereafter, until at an election as above provided a majority shall vote in favor of license.

SEC. 4. Any person who shall hereafter be convicted of selling or offering for sale in this Commonwealth any intoxicating liquors, spirituous, vinous or malt, without a license, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, and confinement in the work-house or county jail for six months for the first offence; for the second and each subsequent offence a fine of one hundred dollars, and confinement in the work-house or county jail one year: Provided, that it shall not be unlawful for the owners of vineyards to sell, on their own premises, wine of their own manufacture, in quantities not less than one gallon, to be removed and not drank on the premises.

REMEMBER THE POOR.

"That Sad Case"—A Practical Suggestion

MESSRS EDITORS—An article appeared in your paper on Saturday, stating a case of extreme suffering, which seemed to have deeply effected the heart of the writer. A suggestion was made, that the case be searched out, and steps taken to have our city so districted that such cases of real suffering would be found out and relieved. This notice, met the eye of one of the Managers of of the Ladies Relief Society, at a late hour on Saturday evening, and nothing but the storm that was then raging, prevented her doing what the writer of the article suggestin, going out and hunting for this sad case, for the locality was not stated. Feeling much anxiety on the subject, and having the picture of the dying woman, and the sorrowing child before the mind, as soon as possible the next day, Sabbath, (for we believe works of of mercy may be done on that holy day) the visitor of the district was informed of this case, and without delay he commenced the search. After wading through slush and water in more than one street, she succeeded in finding the place, and great was her surprise not to find the consumptive woman as represented, but a robust strong woman, apparently in good health, and the "thinly clad little girl," as well and comfortably dressed as any child need be. This woman was not a stranger to the visitor, but had had assistance the present winter, from the Relief Society.

The object of this reply to the above mentioned article, is, to inform the public, what we thought was well known, that this city has been districted and visited for the past twenty years. There are twenty-six districts and a visitor for each one, and all that is necessary when cases of real suffering come to the notice of any citizen, is for them to present the cases to the proper visitor, and as far as the means of the society will permit, their wants will be immediately relieved.

We would suggest that when any one is applied to for relief, for such sad cases, that they go with the applicant, and see whether the story is a true one, or as in the present case a misrepresentation. We cannot conclude this communication without reminding all who wish to help the worthy poor, that the Ladies Relief Society, is in great need of money and we will cheerfully perform the labor of caring for the poor, if the money is placed in our hands.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The attendance last night was not as large as we could have wished, owing no doubt to the character of the play "Don Ceaser de Bazan," it being one which is not what could be called popular with our theatre goers. Mr. Fechter displayed his fine talents in an acceptable manner, whilst Miss Le Clercq increased if anything her popularity as a pleasing actress. Mr. Roche as King Charles, performed well. We think the public, and those present also, would have much preferred to listen to some other play, as this one is not calculated to excite much enthusiasm. The intrigue of a Spanish Court is not just the thing to cause a furore, and we think some heavier role than Don Caesar is better adapted to Mr. Fechter's style of acting. To-night his finest part is to be repeated, Ruy Blas, with the pleasing farce of "The Lottery ticket" as the afterpiece. We advise all who wish to see Mr. Fechter to the best advantage to be present. To-morrow evening Hamlet will be presented, when a most excellent opportunity for a comparison of Mr. Fechter's abilities with those of other distinguished actors will be presented. On Saturday evening the brilliant engagement closes with the Lady of Lyons.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Chapman Sisters drew a fair house last night to witness their rendition of the amusing burlesque of the Sleeping Beauty. To-night, assisted by Mr. Bishop and the entire strength of the company, they will present the new and laughable burlesque of "Little Jack Sheppard, the Idle Apprentice," with new music, and an entire new set of scenes expressly prepared for this piece. Messrs. Milburn, Cooper and Fields, will appear in new specialties. To those who are desirous of spending a delightful evening, we would say do not fail to put in an appearance to-night.

MR. WM. MASON EVANS is to deliver a course of three readings in Library Hall, beginning on Monday, the 6th inst. Mr. Evans' reputation here and abroad is that of an accomplished elocutionist, as well as a sympathetic interpreter of the great authors from whose works he reads, and his selections are always well made and adapted to his purpose. His course will consist of three readings, the first on Monday, the 6th inst., is to be selections from Dickens and the poets; the second, on the following Thursday evening, is entitled "The Humorists," and the third, on Monday, February 13, is called "Shakespeare and Dickens." All of these are favorite titles, and they, with the reputation Mr. Evans has already won, should insure him three large and cultivated audiences.

"RICHARD BRINSLEY SHERIDAN," is the title of Mr. Parsons' lecture for Friday evening, and we anticipate much enjoyment in hearing this one brilliant Irishman speak about another Irish gentleman, whose brilliancy has lasted long after his life was over. Sheridan's reputation as a lawyer, a politician and a dramatist, are almost equally great, all showing what a rare and wonderful genius the man possessed, and Mr. Parsons will doubtless make an extraordinary discourse upon this extraordinary subject.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The proceeds of the exhibition of The Pilgrim to-night are for the benefit of the Fourth Baptist Church. Independent of the merits of the exhibition itself, the object for which it is given should appeal to the friends of religion and cause them to exert themselves to make its stay in the city remunerative to the owner.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—This establishment still continues to draw crowded houses nightly to witness the astonishing feats of the Levantine brothers, the graceful dancing of the incomparable corps de ballet, and to listen to the inimitable and mirth-provoking specialties of Bray, Morrissy and Emmerson.

ORPHANS' FAIR.—One of the pleasantest places that we know of in the city to while away a leisure hour is at the Orphans' Fair, being held in the basement of St. Paul's Cathedral. Beautiful ladies, fine music and the exciting contests going on, aside from the object for which the Fair is being held, should attract crowds nightly.

Coal Boats on the Rampage.

On Tuesday the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers commenced to rise, and at dark last evening there were about fourteen feet of water in the channel. On the Monongahela there was considerable excitement among the coal men, but no extensive damage was done. Yesterday morning about four o'clock, two empty barges and one partially filled with coal, together with two nut coal boats, broke loose from their moorings near Penny's coal works, on the Youghiogheny river, and were carried off by the current. They were swept over dam No. 2, and all of them more or less damaged. Two of the barges were secured at Brown's Landing, in pool No. 1, and the others lower down. Four or five boat bottoms, two belonging to John Penny, were also swept away by the current, but were subsequently landed in safety.

About seven o'clock yesterday morning three barges, filled with coal, moored at the Point, were carried off, the line having parted. Several tow boats started in pursuit, and two of the barges were landed in safety. The remaining one floated down the stream and grounded on the Allegheny side, where it is being lighted up, and will soon be afloat. The coal is owned by J. D. Johnson.

The rise was wholly unexpected, and the wonder is that greater damage was not done.

A Pair of Wife Whippers.

Birmingham seems to be prolific in that brutal type of the genus homo known as wife whippers. In our issue of to-day we are called upon to chronicle two cases of that nature. The first is the case of Mary Morgan who made oath before Burgess Salesbury, yesterday, charging her husband David, alias "Skipper" Morgan with assault and battery. She alleges that although she and David have been but a short time married he has frequently beat and abused her, and that yesterday he wound up the long course of illtreatment by kicking her out into the street. David awaits a hearing in the Birmingham lock-up.

In the second case Sarah Stevenson brought a similar charge before Justice Krehan against her husband, Charles Stevenson. She alleges that Charles without any provocation whatever blacked her eyes and kicked her and their children out into the street, and then broke up their household furniture and threw it after them. A warrant was issued.

The case of Park Brothers & Co. vs. W. W. Wallace, action on a book account, is not yet concluded.

The case of Hershauser vs. Moul will be the only case taken up to-day.

WEDNESDAY, February 1.—The case of R. Munroe & Co., vs. Frazier Bros., previously reported, is still on trial.

In the case of B. C. Loomis & Co., vs. Chas. Lamfus, defendant confessed judgment for the amount in dispute.

The case of Peirce vs. City of Allegheny, McIntyre, McNaugher and Kinder Blair, for damages sustained by the defendant falling into an excavation, on Stockton avenue, was concluded yesterday. The jury returned a verdict for defendants in the case City, and McIntyre, McNaugher and against Kinder Blair for $325.

The damages claimed were $10,000. The jury held that the negligence was on the part of Blair, and not on the city or contractors.

The City Printing Again.

The Dispatch, the influence of which is but of trifling moment, pertinaciously adheres to its determination to keep the price of city printing down to the niggardly and unprofitable figures it established by its mean and memorable caucus bid of last year, and desires to keep good its promise that if it lost the contract no other paper would profit by a triumph in the contest. Yesterday, with unblushing effrontery, it argued that $1,000 would more than pay the cost of all the printing to be done at card rates. Let us see how far the Dispatch can travel away from truth and honesty and yet assume a virtue it knows not. In 1869 the proprietors of that journal drew from the city treasury for city printing, they making oath that they charged no more than the ordinance allowed, over $2,500 for less work than was performed by the GAZETTE in 1870 for $1,000. In 1869 the rates established for city printing were regulated by an ordinance, at 15 per cent. less than regular advertising rates. Now, if the Dispatch could conscientiously take $2,500 from the city, and still urge that that sum was much below the rates in 1869, how can it logically argue that $1,000 is reasonable for more work to be done in 1871—as it is well known, as our city increases more advertising has to be done. The greater sum was very meagre when it was doing the work, but when thrust ignominiously out of the position, it frets and howls and whiningly cries out that $1,000 is fair compensation, and urges the Councils to allow no increase. Our City Fathers, however, have little confidence in the integrity of the Dispatch, or its truthfulness either, so we are not fearful but we will receive plain justice and fair compensation for the work we are expected to do. "Consistency, thou art a jewel!"—and oh, Dispatch, thou hast it not!

Dr. Barker's Lecture this Evening.

The eagerness with which admission to the first of this course was sought, makes a large house for this evening a forgone conclusion. The subject is an exceedingly curious one, and, in some of its aspects, fresh. Dr. Barker's apparatus enables him to set forth before the eye, phenomena which have heretofore been in general simply read about, and that too only by those who have had abundant leisure to wade through whole libraries of learned research, and to watch thier patience and linguistic gifts against the heavy syntax of German exposition. That the muscles and the brain do exhibit phenomena of force that can act upon brute matter just as much as a water wheel, is shown beyond all question, and the variety of forms in which force manifests itself, will be illustrated with an array of engines, batteries, civils, electrical devices and the like that will open the eyes of the most phlegmatic. Dr. Barker draws much of his apparatus for this lecture from the cabinet of the Western University, to which institution the credit is due that lectures of so high a grade, and so costly in their rendering are presented to the Pittsburgh public. No distrust need be entertained of the theological bearing of Dr. Barker's teachings.

Editors Gazette—GENTLEMEN: Imagine, if you can, my joy and gratitude this afternoon, on being presented with a crisp, new treasury note of five hundred dollars, for distribution, under the auspices of "The Pittsburgh Association for the Relief of the Poor." I wish I could have the pleasure of telling you the name of the donor, but, though a citizen, he is a stranger to me, and no persuasion of mine could elicit his name.

His interest in the Association was enlisted by the notices of its pamphlet Report, in the city journals, and, while I tender the grateful thanks of the Association to this noble hearted, generous stranger for this very timely aid, let me assure you that the aid given by the Pittsburgh Press is highly appreciated by the Association.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

An Open Boat Ice-Locked all Night in the Sound.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post]

On Saturday night a boat containing two citizens of New Rochelle, who were out duck shooting, was caught in the ice opposite the United States army post at David's Island, and was rapidly carried towards the open Sound. Lieutenant P. H. Ray of the eighth Infantry, stationed on David's Island saw the peril in which the duck hunters were placed, and started with a boat's crew of six men to their rescue. He succeeded in rescuing two civillians and in getting them into his boat, but then discovered that he too with his party, was hopelessly caught in the ice, and that return to the island was impossible. The cold was intense, and although the men endeavored to keep themselves alive by beating one another, they were soon benumbed into utter helplessness. All night long fires were burned, muskets discharged and bugles sounded on David's Island, and early yesterday morning Lieutenant Ray and his party were seen jammed in the ice above City Island.

A volunteer crew, consisting of Lieutenants Corlies, Craig, Ernest and Summerhays, Sergant Fernald and five men, started to their rescue, and with axes cut their way through the ice to their nearly frozen comrades. Much excitement existed on David's Island when the men, who had been exposed to the storm sixteen hours, were carried on shore. Every attention was paid them, and although they are suffering from severe frost bites they are all in a fair way to recover.

The Marriage of Princess Louise.

At Windsor Castle considerable progress has been made with the preparations for the approaching nuptials of the Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne. The Albert Memorial Chapel, at the east end of St. George's Chapel, and which was once known as Cardinal Wolsey's Chapel, is being prepared for the ceremony by the employes of the Board of Works. The interior walls of the Albert Memorial Chapel are decorated with Baron Triquetti's beautiful marble pictures, the Salviati mosaics, and other unique and costly adornments. For the purposes of the royal wedding the inside of the building will be transformed into tastefully-fitted up assembling and retiring rooms. The stone pavement is being covered with a boarded flooring. The Albert Memorial Chapel is only separated from the east end of St. George's Chapel by the covered entrance to the cloisters inhabited by the Dean and Canons of Windsor, and the marriage procession would have to proceed but a short distance—in fact, only a few yards—to reach the rails in front of the altar. With the view of affording proper accommodations for the numerous and distinguished persons who may have the honor of being invited to attend the marriage the exact number of sittings in the choir has been obtained by the court officials. The marriage is expected to be celebrated about the beginning of March.

ONE of the worst specimens of obituary poetry, tacked to the end of an obituary notice, is the following, which we clip from an exchange:

And when you leave us for a better place,
"A mansion in the sky,"

ONE of the results of the German Arctic exploring expedition is the discovery of immense coal beds in the north of Greenland. Mountains exceeding Mont Blanc in height were discovered, and the botannical specimens found indicate that Greenland must have been covered at one time with rich vegetation.

ON the 29th the reading rooms of the Mercantile Library at Cincinnati were thrown open for the first time on Sunday. The experiment was a thorough success, more than two hundred people having availed themselves of the new privileges, and quite a number of people having come in for the purpose of joining.

THE removal of the College of Glasgow from the old site in High street, has called attention to the Hunterian Museum; and a Society has been founded called the Hunterian Club. The reprints will be fac-simile reproductions. The Club will consist of 200 members, paying annual subscriptions of £2 2s., and operations will be commenced as soon as 150 subscribers shall have entered.

THE device proposed for General Moltke's patent, on his being created a Count was, according to a Berlin paper, "Echt und recht bei Rath und That"—"Honest and right in counsel and action." The King, however, altered it to "Erst wagen, dann wagen"—"First consider, then venture;" or to keep the play on the two words wagen and wagen—"First weigh, then up and away."

THE respectable Welsh miners of the Hyde Park region, have sent a committee down to Tennessee to examine and purchase coal lands, being determined to leave the region of strikes and lazy, cruel rapacity in which they are now settled. The Welsh miners were doing well where they are until the W. B. A was organized, and that forced them against their will to quit work and join the Union.

THE Munich Theater Royal devoted three days to the Beethoven Centenary. On Friday, the 16th of December, there was a performance of chamber music in the Residenztheater; on Saturday there was a Symphony, supplemented by a Mass; and on Sunday, the 18th, Goethe's "Egmont," with Beethoven's music. The Centenary was commemorated at the Volkstheater by the performance of the piece entitled "Beethoven," written by Herr Schmidt.

THE Portsmouth Times says that at a party in that city a few evenings since, one of the gentlemen having to pay a forfeit in the game, the penalty awarded was that he should go to the door and count a number of stars in company with a lady, whereupon a young miss who was present created a sensation by getting up and seriously objecting, on the ground that the fellow was engaged to her sister, and she would not sit there and see any such thing done, and 't wan't.

ONE of the lower courts of New Jersey recently decided that a domestic servant who had been discharged for willful and persistent disobedience of lawful orders, was entitled to recover of his employer his wages up to the time of his dismissal. On review, however, the Supreme Court of New Jersey reversed this decision, holding, generally, that if a servant whose wages are due and payable periodically, as quarterly, monthly or weekly, refuses to serve in the manner contracted for, or is rightfully discharged at any intervening period between the days when the wages are due, he can recover nothing for that space of time which he has served since his last periodical payment of wages.

A POWERFUL AND NOVEL BURGLAR'S IMPLEMENT.—Among the burglar's implements found in the possession of the brothers Peter and John Burns, when arrested at Norristown, was a crowbar jointed so as to admit of being folded up and carried in an ordinary sized satchel. When extended to its full length it was nearly six feet, and the joints being covered with stout rings, was a powerful lever or pry. Burglars are skilled in planning tools and implements to aid them in their operation, as is constantly shown. A few years ago a ladder of curious construction was recovered from a store robber. It could be folded up so as to look like an ordinary pole of eight or ten feet in length, yet when opened out, made a most complete and substantial means of ascent and descent from the second story windows of places of business.

Here is a letter from a pugilist to the "object of his affections:"

DEAREST EMMA: Your last reached me the day after the mill. Blessings on the darling bunch of fives that scribbled it. I kissed the signature for the sake of the dear little diddle that will one day make me the happiest buffer going. I can't begin to describe my feelings on reading it. If I had been auctioneered on my knowledge-box, I couldn't have been more completely grassed. Any boy might have floored me by a tap on my snuffer-trap. And the sight of the photograph of your lovely mug almost knocked me out of time. How I recall those features! Those ogles, as blue as the sky; that conk, with its aquiline curve; that rosy-lipped tater-trap; those ivories; that fair skin, where the claret blushes. Oh! would that the original was present, her but reclining on my bread-basket, her oration-trap murmuring in my lungs, and her mauley clasped in the flipper of her adorer. Ah! love has got my pimple in chancery, and is fibbing away. I can't counter on his nob, and care not how soon the sponge is thrown up.

A Story by Dan Rice.

In the Mayor's parlor, the other day, says the New Orleans Picayune, we encountered Dan Rice, the veteran circus man and inimitable clown. He, as usual, took the lead in conversation and got off quite a number of jokes, of which he seemed to have a fund inexhaustible. Among other things he related an anecdote of the well-known actor, Dan Marble, who during his life was acknowledged to be the best comedian on the stage. "Marble," said Rice, "was very fond of his tod, and never missed an opportunity of attending the races. It happened that on the evening that he was to appear at the St. Charles in the 'Yankee Teamster,' or some other similar play, one of the most exciting races that ever came off in New Orleans took place, and Dan, of course, was there. Imbibing pretty freely, he was soon in a state that was scarcely dignified, and it was with no little difficulty he was taken to the theatre and gotten into any sort of condition for appearing before the clamorous and expectant audience. At last the curtain rolled up. Dan was pushed on the stage. The glare of the lights and the sight of the audience brightened him up a little, and with an irresistibly funny attempt at being steady he staggered forward, and with his hat askew, and jerking at his coat as if to button it up. The audience roared with laughter, and Marble (not too drunk to appreciate the situation) stood surveying the house in the most comical fashion, swaying to and fro unsteadily. Finally he said; 'Here I am—little late. Fact is, been to the races. All the fellers bet whisky, and I held the stakes.' The indescribably comic expression of Marble's face, and the absurdity of his excuse, set the house in such a roar as I shall never forget while I live. 'Poor Marble,' continued Dan, 'he died of cholera afterward up the river, on the very night that he played a piece which he had himself dubbed 'sure cure for cholera.'"

The Lash.

TORONTO, Canada, recently witnessed the public flogging of James Greenwood, a young Englishmen, for indecent assault. The spectators being formed in a semi-circle, Greenwood was ordered to strip, and doggedly removed his clothing to the waist. A leather collar was placed on his neck to protect it from injury, and he was securely bound by the ankles and wrists to the triangle. A leaden button was given to him to hold in his mouth and prevent biting his tongue. An old soldier who had seen flogging in the army handled the cat, which was about two feet long, with nine lashes about the same length, not knotted, and the Sheriff called off the twenty strokes. Only at the tenth did the victim groan or cry out. His back was covered with huge red welts, but no blood was drawn, though the Sheriff ordered the soldier to lay on the lash harder. The culprit dressed himself alone and retired to his cell without any medical aid being rendered, and even tried to smile at the spectators.

THE TWO-HEADED GIRL.

A Biographical Sketch.

[NOTE.—Any trifling irregularity that the reader may observe in the following biography, regarding the occasional mixture of the singular and plural numbers, is to be accounted for on the ground that the author himself is uncertain which is correct,—the subject being of such an excessively bewildering nature—and therefore uses both numbers, sure, at least, of one of them being right.]

These remarkable girl are a native of Africa. A land where, if Bishop Heber is to be believed, "sunny fountains" are in the constant habit of "rolling down on golden sands," and a variety of other phenomena too numerous to mention are likewise visible to the naked eye of a careful observer.

At their birth she were the wonders of the peaceful Caffir village on the banks of the Congo river, where their parents resided. The aged chief, who patriarchally presided over this truly rural little town, when he first beheld her wonderful forms, observed, "If she dont Caffir her heads off with croup in the days of her infancy, they Congo to every quarter of the globe, charging a quarter for people to look at her."

As might have been supposed, the enraged populace rose en masse and slew the hoary sinner who thus desecrated their most sacred instincts with his depraved and dreamily bewildering puns. In India, at least in the Punjaub, such conduct might have been overlooked, but the Africans were relentless.

Of the youth of our heroine little is known. A rumor has reached us that a young African Prince (supposed to have been the Bey of Bengal), undeterred by fear of a possible action for bigamy, proposed for her hand. The rumor adds that he was so confused by her answer—one head saying "yes," and the other "no"—that he retreated from her presence in a state of semi-insanity, and rushing to the residence of his bosom friend, who happened to bear the name of Albert, said, with wild and uncouth gestures, "Albert, n'answer could have been more perplexing!" and straightway drowned himself in the lake of a somewhat similar name.

When they heard of the Bey's sad fate, our heroines is reported to have given herself up to the wildest grief (the head that said "no" meant "yes" all the while, it seems,) and they wandered about the village, weeping and wringing her hands, repeating in heart-rending tones, "Ah me! we can never have a Bey to love and honor!"

While in this state a slave-dealer met her, and being naturally surprised by their appearance, and seeing at the same time a chance for turning an honest penny, entered into negotiations with her parents for their purchase. As her grief had made them utterly useless for assisting in chores about the house, the parents readily consented to sell out at a comparatively low figure. The dealer joyfully closed the bargain, became her owner, and bore them off in triumph!

In due course of time she came into the possession of the proprietor of a museum, and they now have been for some years the wonders of the civilized world.

UNDER THE GASLIGHT.

A Medical College Loses a Valuable "Subject" While the Janitor Sleeps—A Rival College Counts One—The Mysteries of the Dissecting-Room.

[From the Louisville Commercial January 21.]

Subjects for the dissecting room—inanimate human bodies—the means by which the student gains a practical knowledge of human disease and the human anatomy, are considered legitimate property by medical men. Like other property the "subject" has its relative value, according to peculiarity or singularity of the diseases which wore out its vitality. Is it any wonder then when a person dies, after suffering under a disease which confounds the physician and surgeon, that the body assumes an importance and value above all others? Thus, a few weeks ago, a lady came to this city suffering from a disease which had baffled the skill of the best physicians in the country. She could obtain no relief, and worn out with a malady which seemed to be beyond human skill to cure, she prepared to die, bequeathing her frail body to a medical college for the benefit of science. Dissolution at last took place, and the victim of a mysterious and complicated disease died. Her body was taken to the dissecting room of a medical college and there laid upon a table to await the appearance of the demonstrator of anatomy and his group of incipient sawbones. The gas burned dimly, and the janitor, watching the silent figure on the table and the shadows on the wall, speculated sleepily on spirits and strange sights. Through his half opened eyes he imagined he saw the glassy eye of the corpse turn towards him, and the rigid outlines of the body turning into life. As sleep carried him farther away, he thought he saw the room filled with moving forms, and heard whispers around him. Feeling that the ghosts of departed subjects "had come trooping back to meet the last comer," and too sleepy to investigate the strange phenomena, he inhaled a strange odor, and closed his eyes in profound sleep. Awakening at sunrise, the janitor rubbed his eyes and looked about him; the gas still burned dimly, the shadows on the wall had vanished, and so had the subject on the table. Then there was trouble—then there was startled investigation which elicited nothing. While the janitor slept the body had been taken away, was the very reasonable conclusion of the shrewd faculty. Who got the body? In the dissecting room of a rival college the abducted "subject" lies in front of a group of students, who watch critically every incision of the knife, every evidence of disease. They are gathering surreptitiously the knowledge which the dead designed for their rivals; but they are gloatingly happy, while those who feed their loss are miserable beyond description. This is the only case on record where one medical college secured a choice "subject" from the dissecting-room of their rival without being detected. And now, if a search warrant could be secured, and the lawyers take a part in this grave subject, wouldn't there be a delightful complication?

A Detective Outwitted.

The other day a New Orleans detective arrested a man on suspicion of having stolen a valuable diamond pin. Being hard pressed the thief owned up and surrendered the jewel to the officer, who placed it in his shirt bosom. On the way to the lock-up the officer and prisoner got on board a horse car, and in doing so the former was considerably jostled by a crowd on the platform. Just then the prisoner whispered in his ear: "Look out, Captain, that was a thief who passed you just now." The officer glanced hurriedly at his shirt front. The pin was gone! He sprung from the car and started in pursuit of the imaginary thief. It is needless to say he was not found; and when he returned his former prisoner was gone also. The next day the vigilant (?) detective had his already overwrought feelings lacerated anew by the receipt of a pencil line, saying: "Captain, I'm gone; I take the pin with me. It was too nice to give up."
